Minor only

The minor in Arctic skills is designed for anyone who lives and works in a northern climate and wishes to learn to cope with the outdoor Arctic environment.

Students who complete this minor also earn a State of Alaska EMTI certificate and may prepare to take the FAA written exam for partial fulfillment of the private pilot certificate requirements.

Minor

1. Complete the following:
   - AVTY F100—Private Pilot Ground School (4)
     - or AVTY F111—Fundamentals of Aviation (3)......................3-4
   - AVTY F231—Arctic Survival (3)
     - or EMS F257—Arctic Survival (3)..............................................3
   - EMS F170—EMT: Emergency Medical Technician I ...................6
   - Approved electives* .................................................................3-4

2. Minimum credits required ..........................................................15

* Approved by program manager.