The Alaska Master Naturalist Program is designed for teachers, nonformal educators and anybody who is curious and enjoys learning about the natural world, sharing that knowledge with others and supporting conservation of Alaska’s natural resources.

Early bird registration until March 15.

Full 11-course series includes 45 hours of instruction and costs $450

Full 11-course series includes 45 hours of instruction and costs $500 after March 15.

Individual course registration begins after March 15: 3-hour courses are $45 and 6-hour courses are $90.

For more information, contact Kay Shoemaker at 786-6345 or email kwshoemaker@alaska.edu.