UAF Scholarship Breakfast

Tuesday, April 24, 2018
7:30-9 a.m.
Lisa Herbert, host

Welcome
Chancellor Daniel M. White
Abbey VandenBerg, student
Professor Mary Ehrlander, faculty donor
Esau Sinnok, student
Special announcement
Closing remarks

Following the presentation, donors are invited to join their recipients at the front of the room to be photographed.

Musical performance by Raven Call.
A special thank you to musicians
Leif Thompson ’85 and Carol Indorf.
Receiving privately funded scholarships made me feel the support of the UAF community, which believed in me and gave me the confidence to pursue my dreams.

“Receiving privately funded scholarships made me feel the support of the UAF community, which believed in me and gave me the confidence to pursue my dreams.”

Mary Ehrlander ’92, ’93
• Professor, lifelong Fairbanksan and dedicated Nanook.
• Faculty member with Arctic and Northern Studies since 2001.
• Recipient of the 2016 Emil Usibelli Award for Distinguished Teaching.
• Founder of the Ehrlander Award for Graduate Studies.

“UAF has always been a part of my life, and I am proud to support higher education in Alaska. As a professor, I witness firsthand the tremendous impact that scholarships have on our students.”

Esau Sinnok
• Junior from Shishmaref, Alaska, studying tribal management and Alaska Native studies.
• 2017/18 recipient of the Gerson Family Memorial Scholarship, the Johnny and Sarah Frank Scholarship, and the Mable B. Crawford Memorial Scholarship.

“Scholarships are helping me gain independence as I work toward my goal of becoming a leader in my community.”