The goal of the UAF School of Education is to increase the number of professional, culturally responsive, and effective teachers and counselors in the state of Alaska as well as to enhance the skills of professionals currently in these fields.

We learn, we teach, we inspire!

Degree Programs

- Special Education* 36 - 39 credits
- Secondary Education* 40 - 43 credits
- Elementary Education* 54 credits
- School Counseling 48 - 54 credits
- Clinical Mental Health Counseling 60 credits
- People, Place, And Pedagogy 30 credits
- Language and Literacy 30 credits
- Online Innovation and Design 30 credits

*These programs provide teacher certification. Credit totals include certification and M. Ed. Visit our website for more information!

Provides elementary, secondary, or K-12 school counselor certification with Master's degree.

Campus based and distance programs available!

Distance classes meet by audio or video conference or can be completed online.
For current semester classes: http://www.uaf.edu/coursefinder/

Application Process

General application deadlines:
March 1st (summer and fall)
October 1st (spring)

Submit the following:
- Online Graduate Application using UAF Admission Portal: www.uaf.edu/admissions/apply
- Official Transcripts
- Essay (4-5 pg.) describing career goals, educational philosophy
- Three letters of reference
- Resume
- GRE scores if undergraduate GPA is below 3.0
- Additional requirements for certification programs, see website for details.

Submit application materials through the UAF Admission Portal. Questions about the portal? Contact:
Office of Admissions
University of Alaska Fairbanks
PO Box 757480
Fairbanks, AK 99775-7480
(907) 474-7500 (800) 478-1823
(907) 478-5397 fax
admissions@uaf.edu

Contact us for more information,
UAF School of Education
Jane Monahan, Graduate Advisor
jmmonahan@alaska.edu
907-474-5362
www.uaf.edu/soe/