June 3
Alaska’s Amazing Marmots: Knowns and unknowns

Link Olson, Curator of Mammals, UA Museum of the North and UAF Associate Professor of Biology and Wildlife

June 10
The Mystery of the South Fork Wolf

Ned Rozell, Science Writer for the UAF Geophysical Institute

June 17
The Lost Alaskans: The mentally handicapped who were sent to Oregon’s Morningside Hospital

Niesje Steinkruger, Retired Superior Court Judge

June 24
The Earliest Alaskans: Cultural adaptation and change through the end of the last Ice Age

Ben Potter, UAF Associate Professor of Anthropology

July 8
Dinosaur Discovery in Alaska

Patrick Druckenmiller, Curator of Earth Sciences at the UA Museum of the North and UAF Associate Professor of Geosciences

July 15
For Alaska and the World: Alaskans in the days of the First World War, 1914-1918

Preston Jones, Professor of History at John Brown University

July 22
From White Fang to Ordinary Wolves: 100 years of Alaskan literature

Eric Heyne, UAF Professor of English, author, editor

July 29
Tools of Glass: Obsidian artifacts provide a bread crumb trail to Alaska’s past

Jeff Rasic, Chief of Resources for Yukon-Charley Rivers National Preserve and Gates of the Arctic National Park and Preserve

August 5
Arctic National Wildlife Refuge: Past, present, future

Debbie Miller, writer and author of A King Salmon Journey

August 12
Sworn Liars, Secret Confessions and Other Hartman Murder Twists

Brian O’Donoghue, UAF Associate Professor of Journalism