Suggested Gear List

Tent (could be shared)
Sleeping bag
Sleeping pad
Pillow
Clothing: Bring layers, long pants and long underwear in case it’s cold. It can snow any month of the year in the Brooks Range.
Hiking shoes
Sun hat
Wool/fleece cap
Wool/fleece gloves
Jacket (fleece jacket could fit under rain gear)
Heavy rain gear, including pants
Rubber boots/hip waders
Neoprene gloves
Sandals
Toiletries: small towel (quick drying is best), toothbrush, toothpaste, biodegradable soap, toilet paper (with zip lock baggie to carry out used TP; trowels will be provided), lip balm, hand sanitizer, vitamins/medications, shaving kit
Needle and thread for mending, safety pins, etc.
Personal first aid items
Sunscreen
Sunglasses
Insect repellent or bug jacket
Head net
Camera gear with extra batteries and case to protect from inclement weather
Personal water bottle
Iodine Tablets
Dry sack (we may have a few that people could borrow)
Small day pack for stuff you want to keep handy during the day and a carabiner or clip to attach it to the raft so you don’t lose it
PFD (life jacket), if you have one that’s approved by the coast guard

Note: The maximum weight should not exceed 80 lbs/person, including food.