MOTION:

The Faculty Senate moves to adopt the following changes to the UAF Department Chair Policy.

Effective: Immediately

Rationale: The Department Chair Policy has not been revisited or reviewed since 2000. With recent changes made to the United Academics (UNAC) Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) in 2014, it is pertinent to review and revise the existing policy.

UAF REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT AND EVALUATIONS OF FACULTY AND INTERNATIONAL ARCTIC RESEARCH CENTER UNIT CRITERIA, STANDARDS, AND INDICES

THE FOLLOWING IS AN ADAPTATION OF UAF AND BOARD OF REGENTS’ CRITERIA FOR ANNUAL REVIEW, PRE-TENURE REVIEW, POST-TENURE REVIEW, PROMOTION, AND TENURE, SPECIFICALLY ADAPTED FOR USE IN EVALUATING THE FACULTY OF THE INTERNATIONAL ARCTIC RESEARCH CENTER (IARC). ITEMS IN BOLDFACE ITALICS ARE THOSE SPECIFICALLY ADDED OR EMPHASIZED BECAUSE OF THEIR RELEVANCE TO THE DEPARTMENT’S FACULTY, AND BECAUSE THEY ARE ADDITIONS TO UAF REGULATIONS.

CHAPTER I

Purview

The University of Alaska Fairbanks document, “Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” supplements the Board of Regents (BOR) policies and describes the purpose, conditions, eligibility, and other specifications relating to the evaluation of faculty at the University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF). Contained herein are regulations and procedures to guide the evaluation processes and to identify the bodies of review appropriate for the university.

The university, through the UAF Faculty Senate, may change or amend these regulations and procedures from time to time and will provide adequate notice in making changes and amendments.

These regulations shall apply to all of the units within the University of Alaska Fairbanks, except in so far as extant collective bargaining agreements apply otherwise.

The provost is responsible for coordination and implementation of matters relating to procedures stated herein.
CHAPTER II

Initial Appointment of Faculty

A. Criteria for Initial Appointment
Minimum degree, experience and performance requirements are set forth in “UAF Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” Chapter IV. Exceptions to these requirements for initial placement in academic rank or special academic rank positions shall be submitted to the chancellor or chancellor’s designee for approval prior to a final selection decision.

B. Academic Titles
Academic titles must reflect the discipline in which the faculty are appointed.

C. Process for Appointment of Faculty with Academic Rank
Deans of schools and colleges, and directors when appropriate, in conjunction with the faculty in a unit, shall observe procedures for advertisement, review, and selection of candidates to fill any vacant faculty position. These procedures are set by UAF Human Resources and the Campus Diversity and Compliance (AA/EEO) office and shall provide for participation in hiring by faculty and administrators as a unit.

D. Process for Appointment of Faculty with Special Academic Rank
Deans and/or directors, in conjunction with the faculty in a unit, shall establish procedures for advertisement, review, and selection of candidates to fill any faculty positions as they become available. Such procedures shall be consistent with the university’s stated AA/EEO policies and shall provide for participation in hiring by faculty and administrators in the unit.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BOARD OF REGENTS POLICY ON PROMOTION AND TENURE, IARC FACULTY MAY BE EXEMPTED FROM A TRIPARTITE RESPONSIBILITY. SUCH FACULTY HAVE BIPARTITE RESPONSIBILITY. THE BIPARTITE RESPONSIBILITIES ARE TO BE CLEARLY STATED AT THE TIME OF HIRE AND CAN BE ANY COMBINATION OF TWO OF THE THREE TRIPARTITE MISSIONS, I.E., TEACHING, RESEARCH, OR SERVICE.

E. Following the Selection Process
The dean or director shall appoint the new faculty member and advise him/her of the conditions, benefits, and obligations of the position. If the appointment is to be at the professor level, the dean/director must first obtain the concurrence of the chancellor or chancellor’s designee.

F. Letter of Appointment
The initial letter of appointment shall specify the nature of the assignment, the percentage emphasis that is to be placed on each of the parts of the faculty responsibility, mandatory year of tenure review, and any special conditions relating to the appointment.

This letter of appointment establishes the nature of the position and, while the percentage of emphasis for each part may vary with each workload distribution as specified in the annual workload agreement document, the part(s) defining the position may not.
CHAPTER III

Periodic Evaluation of Faculty

A. General Criteria
Criteria as outlined in “UAF Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” Chapter IV, evaluators may consider, but shall not be limited to, whichever of the following are appropriate to the faculty member’s professional obligation: mastery of subject matter; effectiveness in teaching; achievement in research, scholarly, and creative activity; effectiveness of public service; effectiveness of university service; demonstration of professional development and quality of total contribution to the university.

For purposes of evaluation at UAF, the total contribution to the university and activity in the areas outlined above will be defined by relevant activity and demonstrated competence from the following areas: 1) effectiveness in teaching; 2) achievement in scholarly activity; and 3) effectiveness of service. EVALUATIONS SHOULD BE CONSISTENT WITH AN INDIVIDUAL FACULTY MEMBER’S JOB DESCRIPTION AND WORKLOAD AGREEMENT.

Bipartite Faculty
Bipartite faculty are regular academic rank faculty who fill positions that are designated as performing two of the three parts of the university’s tripartite responsibility.

The dean or director of the relevant college/school shall determine which of the criteria defined above apply to these faculty.

Bipartite faculty may voluntarily engage in a tripartite function, but they will not be required to do so as a condition for evaluation, promotion, or tenure.

B. Criteria for Instruction
A central function of the university is instruction of students in formal courses and supervised study. Teaching includes those activities directly related to the formal and informal transmission of appropriate skills and knowledge to students. The nature of instruction will vary for each faculty member, depending upon workload distribution and the particular teaching mission of the unit. Instruction includes actual contact in classroom, correspondence or electronic delivery methods, laboratory or field and preparatory activities, such as preparing for lectures, setting up demonstrations, and preparing for laboratory experiments, as well as individual/independent study, tutorial sessions, evaluations, correcting papers, and determining grades. Other aspects of teaching and instruction extend to undergraduate and graduate academic advising and counseling, training graduate students and serving on their graduate committees, particularly as their major advisor, curriculum development, and academic recruiting and retention activities.

1. Effectiveness in Teaching
IARC HAS A LARGE NUMBER OF BIPARTITE FACULTY THAT DO NOT HAVE A TEACHING COMPONENT TO THEIR WORKLOAD. FOR THESE FACULTY, SCHOLARLY ACTIVITY AND SERVICE CRITERIA ARE THE DOMINANT CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION.

   Evidence of excellence in teaching may be demonstrated through, but not limited to, evidence of the various characteristics that define effective teachers. Effective teachers

   a. are highly organized, plan carefully, use class time efficiently, have clear objectives, have high expectations for students;
b. express positive regard for students, develop good rapport with students, show interest/enthusiasm for the subject;

c. emphasize and encourage student participation, ask questions, frequently monitor student participation for student learning and teacher effectiveness, are sensitive to student diversity;

d. emphasize regular feedback to students and reward student learning success;

e. demonstrate content mastery, discuss current information and divergent points of view, relate topics to other disciplines, deliver material at the appropriate level;

f. regularly develop new courses, workshops and seminars and use a variety of methods of instructional delivery and instructional design.

g. may receive prizes and awards for excellence in teaching.

ALTHOUGH THESE ACHIEVEMENTS WOULD NOT BE EXPECTED TO OCCUR ON AN ANNUAL BASIS.

2. Components of Evaluation

Effectiveness in teaching will be evaluated through information on formal and informal teaching, course and curriculum material, recruiting and advising, training/guiding graduate students, etc., provided by:

a. systematic student ratings, i.e. student opinion of instruction summary forms, and at least two of the following:

b. narrative self-evaluation,

c. peer/department chair classroom observation(s),

d. peer/department chair evaluation of course materials.

C. Criteria for Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity

Inquiry and originality are central functions of a land grant/sea grant/space grant university and all faculty with a research component in their assignment must remain active as scholars. Consequently, faculty are expected to conduct research or engage in other scholarly or creative pursuits that are appropriate to the mission of their unit, and equally important, results of their work must be disseminated through media appropriate to their discipline. Furthermore, it is important to emphasize the distinction between routine production and creative excellence as evaluated by an individual's peers at the University of Alaska and elsewhere.

1. Achievement in Research, Scholarly and Creative Activity

Whatever the contribution, research, scholarly or creative activities must have one or more of the following characteristics:

a. They must occur in a public forum.

b. They must be evaluated by appropriate peers.

c. They must be evaluated by peers external to this institution so as to allow an objective judgment.
d. They must be judged to make a contribution.

2. Components of Research, Scholarly and Creative Activity

Evidence of excellence in research, scholarly, and creative activity may be demonstrated through, but not limited to:

a. Books, reviews, monographs, bulletins, articles, proceedings and other scholarly works published by reputable journals, scholarly presses, and publishing houses that accept works only after rigorous review and approval by peers in the discipline.

b. Competitive grants and contracts to finance the development of ideas, these grants and contracts being subject to rigorous peer review and approval.

c. Presentation of research papers before learned societies that accept papers only after rigorous review and approval by peers.

d. Exhibitions of art work at galleries, selection for these exhibitions being based on rigorous review and approval by juries, recognized artists, or critics.

e. Performances in recitals or productions, selection for these performances being based on stringent auditions and approval by appropriate judges.

f. Scholarly reviews of publications, art works and performance of the candidate.

g. Citations of research in scholarly publications.

h. Published abstracts of research papers.

i. Reprints or quotations of publications, reproductions of art works, and descriptions of interpretations in the performing arts, these materials appearing in reputable works of the discipline.

j. Prizes and awards for excellence of scholarship.

k. Awards of special fellowships for research or artistic activities or selection of tours of duty at special institutes for advanced study.

l. Development of processes or instruments useful in solving problems, such as computer programs and systems for the processing of data, genetic plant and animal material, and where appropriate obtaining patents and/or copyrights for said development.

m. NEW AND UNIQUE ADAPTATIONS OF EXISTING RESEARCH BASED TECHNOLOGY OR KNOWLEDGE IN ORDER TO SOLVE PROBLEMS RELEVANT TO ALASKA

n. EDUCATION AND OUTREACH MATERIALS FOR DISSEMINATION OF RESEARCH FINDINGS AND/OR RESEARCH PROCESS TO A BROAD COMMUNITY OF STAKEHOLDERS. (K-12 STUDENTS, LIFE-LONG LEARNERS, GENERAL PUBLIC, RESOURCE AGENCIES, POLICY MAKERS ETC.)

o. SCIENTIFIC REPORTS DOCUMENTING PROJECT FINDINGS PRESENTED TO PROJECT CONTRACTOR/FUNDER.
D. Criteria for Public and University Service

Public service is intrinsic to the land grant/sea grant/space grant tradition, and is a fundamental part of the university’s obligation to the people of its state. In this tradition, faculty providing their professional expertise for the benefit of the university’s external constituency, free of charge, is identified as “public service.” The tradition of the university itself provides that its faculty assumes a collegial obligation for the internal functioning of the institution; such service is identified as “university service.”

1. Public Service

Public service is the application of teaching, research, and other scholarly and creative activity to constituencies outside the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It includes all activities which extend the faculty member’s professional, academic, or leadership competence to these constituencies. It can be instructional, collaborative, or consultative in nature and is related to the faculty member’s discipline or other publicly recognized expertise. Public service may be systematic activity that involves planning with clientele and delivery of information on a continuing, programmatic basis. It may also be informal, individual, professional contributions to the community or to one’s discipline, or other activities in furtherance of the goals and mission of the university and its units. Such service may occur on a periodic or limited-term basis.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

a. Providing information services to adults or youth.

b. Service on or to government or public committees.

c. Service on accrediting bodies.

d. Active participation in professional organizations.

e. Active participation in discipline-oriented service organizations.

f. Consulting

n. Assisting Regional and Local Organizations Understand Data and Scientific Findings Necessary to Plan and Fashion Policy.

o. Production of IARC Fact Sheets to Disseminate Information to a Broad Audience in an Easily Understood Format.

2. University Service

University service includes those activities involving faculty members in the governance, administration, and other internal affairs of the university, its colleges, schools, and institutes. It includes non-instructional work with students and their organizations. Examples of such activity include, but are not limited to:

a. Service on university, college, school, institute, or departmental committees or governing bodies.

b. Consultative work in support of university functions, such as expert assistance for specific projects.

c. Service as department chair or term-limited and part-time assignment as assistant/associate dean in a college/school.

d. Participation in accreditation reviews.

e. Service on collective bargaining unit committees or elected office.

f. Service in support of student organizations and activities.

g. Academic support services such as library and museum programs.

b. Active participation in professional organizations.

c. Active participation in discipline-oriented service organizations.

d. Committee chair or officer of professional organizations.

e. Organizer, session organizer, or moderator for professional meetings.

f. Service on a national or international review panel or committee.
4. Evaluation of Service
Each individual faculty member’s proportionate responsibility in service shall be reflected in annual workload agreements. In formulating criteria, standards and indices for evaluation, promotion, and tenure, individual units should include examples of service activities and measures for evaluation appropriate for that unit (see below for IARC). Excellence in public and university service may be demonstrated through, e.g., appropriate letters of commendation, recommendation, and/or appreciation, certificates and awards and other public means of recognition for services rendered.

CHAPTER IV

MOTION:

The UAF Faculty Senate moves to approve a new minor in Aerospace Engineering, housed in the CEM Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering.

Effective: Fall 2015

Rationale: This new minor will ensure a constant and growing stream of students for academics and research affiliated with UAF aerospace efforts, such as Alaska Space Grant Program (ASGP) and Alaska Center for Unmanned Aircraft Systems Integration (ACUASI). See the program proposal #50-UNP on file in the Governance Office, 312B Signers’ Hall.

Overview:

Formalizing a minor in Aerospace Engineering leverages the interest by students and the community in aeronautics and space systems engineering, including very popular unmanned aircraft systems (UAS) efforts seen in the news. In addition, this program leverages the new UAS joint position between CEM and the GI’s Remote Sensing Directorate/Alaska Center for UAS Integration (ACUASI), Dr Michael Hatfield/ECE. This minor will provide increased ability for UAF engineers to highlight their work in a critical engineering field, and will elevate the status of UAF by the aerospace community and potential students. The program will ensure a constant and growing stream of students for academics and research affiliated with UAF aerospace efforts, such as Alaska Space Grant Program (ASGP) and ACUASI.

As a point of reference, this semester, a graduate course in UAS design was offered in ECE (EE493/693), which already has 10 students enrolled—a very solid turnout given the size of the ECE graduate program.

Proposed Minor Requirements:

Aerospace Engineering Minor

1. Complete the following:*
   ME 451, Aerodynamics—3 credits
   ME 452, Introduction to Astrodynamics—3 credits
2. Complete three of the following:*
   ME 450, Theory of Flight—3 credits
   ME 453, Propulsion Systems—3 credits
   ME 408, Mechanical Vibrations—3 credits
   EE 434, Instrumentation Systems—4 credits
   EE 444, Embedded Systems Design—4 credits
   EE 471, Fundamentals of Automatic Control or ME409, Controls—3 credits
   GEOS 422, Geoscience Applications of Remote Sensing—3 credits
3. Minimum credits required—15 credits

Note: This minor may require substantial additional courses for non-ME and non-EE majors.
*These courses have prerequisites that need to be taken into consideration. Students must earn a C- grade or better in each course.
Relationship to Purposes of the University:

This minor will provide increased ability for UAF engineers to highlight their work in a critical engineering field, and will elevate the status of UAF by the aerospace community and potential students. The program will ensure a constant and growing stream of students for academics and research affiliated with UAF aerospace efforts, such as Alaska Space Grant Program (ASGP) and the Alaska Center for Unmanned Aircraft Systems Integration (ACUASI).

This minor supports the desires of UA President, and efforts of local and state leaders to develop a robust aerospace industry in Alaska. Complementary efforts include UAF’s ACUASI program and its role as lead entity in the FAA’s Pan Pacific UAS Test Range Complex (PPUTRC), as well as the ASGP, Kodiak Space Launch Facility, Poker Flat Research Range (PFRR), and the proposed Alaska UAS Technical Park being coordinated through the state & borough. These activities represent a significant number of highly skilled jobs for Alaska’s economy and increasing focus on UAF programs.

Minor program will be overseen by the College of Engineering & Mines. Dr. Michael Hatfield will act as minor coordinator. Dr. Hatfield has previous experience in administering space systems engineering degree at the US Air Force Academy.
REPORT TO THE FACULTY SENATE AND PROVOST:
REVITALIZING THE MATHEMATICS PH.D.

In Faculty Senate meeting #191 on May 6, 2013, a motion was passed that the Faculty Senate supports continuation of the Ph.D. program in Mathematics at UAF, contingent on DMS submitting annual reports to the Faculty Senate in December until the next program review in academic year 2015-2016. This document is a third progress report. (An additional progress report with enrollment numbers was drafted in April 2014 at the request of the Faculty Senate.) We report enrollment and recruitment figures for the Mathematics Ph.D. program.

Recruitment. DMS is actively working to attract new students to its Ph.D. program. We now have three Ph.D. students accepted into the program at UAF.

(1) Hector Baños started in Fall of 2014 as an MS/PhD student.

He appears to be making good progress in his required MS core course (Algebra) and has been taking one graduate elective, Math 665: Configurations, related to his broad area of study (discrete geometry). He is also doing an independent study on polytopes — related to a possible research area. He will be advised by Leah Berman or Gordon Williams.

(2) Gökhan Gökşu will start in January 2015 and an MS/PhD student.

He was recruited, and will be advised by Sergei Avdonin.

(3) Ranjan Dissanayake was accepted as and MS/PhD student to begin in Fall 2015.

He will be advised by Elizabeth Allman, and applied to UAF to work in her area of research. Because of sabbatical schedules, she has asked that he defer beginning his Ph.D. studies until Spring 2015.

Revision of Ph.D. program of study. The Ph.D. revitalization committee will work in Spring 2015 to revise the MS/PhD examination system both to help MS students graduate more quickly and to make the examination system fit better with the goals of training independent researchers.

Funding. Four DMS faculty (Allman, Berman, Rhodes, Williams) interested in advising Ph.D.’s made federally funded grant applications in Fall 2014. Each application included funding for graduate students which, if the grant proposals are successful, will be used to train Ph.D. students. Two other DMS faculty (Avdonin, Rybkin) currently have NSF funding. Avdonin was required by his NSF program officer to remove graduate student funding before his award was made.

For further information, please contact Elizabeth Allman. The Ph.D. revitalization committee would be pleased to meet with interested parties to discuss the program.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth Allman, Sergei Avdonin, Leah Berman,
John Rhodes, Alexei Rybkin, Gordon Williams

III. Old business
   A. Update from GERC concerning ‘C’ requirement.
      This from Leah Berman: The current scheme under consideration is to have departments be responsible for developing plans for how students in each of their degree programs will address the Communications learning outcomes (which we’ve developed) without requiring specifically notated courses.
      Some obvious questions are
      (1) What would such a plan look like (we’re working on some samples)
      (2) Whose responsibility would it be to approve the plans initially
      (3) What accountability would there be later as to whether the plan is (a) working, and (b) being followed.
      Presumably we’ll hear more soon!
   B. motion for consideration regarding probation: on hold for the moment
   C. Motion regarding National exams and how counted:
      see below—underlined statement to be added

CREDIT FOR NATIONAL EXAMS
There are several ways to earn college credit by receiving a passing score on a national exam. For any of the following exam options, grades are not computed in the UAF GPA. Credit received for exams is not considered UAF residence credit and is not considered to be part of the semester course load for classification as a full-time student. Credit is awarded to current or previously enrolled degree students at UAF. Rules that apply to transfer courses (including the Table of Substitutions) also apply to course credit received through a National Exam.
[Note: these national exams include College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), College Board Advanced Placement Exams (CEEB), and International Baccalaureate (IB) exams]

D. Towards a plan to make forward motion regarding changes in UAF’s general Education Requirements

III. Old business

Brian recapped the following items of old business with the Committee:

A. GERC and “C” – GERC has not met yet this semester, but Leah tells me this is the first task they have before them.

Brian has met with Leah Berman (GERC Chair). The C-O-W group will get together again soon and pick up the discussion.

B. Email from GERC Chair to Dean CLA – GERC has not yet met; they plan to discuss possible ways of creating buckets at a future meeting

Dean Sherman has not responded to the bucket list communication, yet. Brian and Leah will devise a process for creating bucket lists of courses and present that to the dean.

C. Statewide Gen Ed committee updates – UAF reps are Rainer Newberry, Leah Berman and Mary Ehrlander. Rainer can fill us in on any other information he has about the committee or its process.

The three reps have been endorsed by the Administrative Committee of the Faculty Senate. Meetings will have to occur via audio or video conference as there are no travel funds to bring all the membership together.

D. Probation/disqualification policy – still on hold, per Alex

A revised probation letter is in the works. PAIR data has been requested.

E. AP, CLEP, IP testing motion – approved by Administrative Committee; not needed to go to full Senate for vote

Brian recapped the decision of the Administrative Committee to approve the language addition to the Catalog. The change falls into a gray area, and it was agreed that it did not require the review of the full Faculty Senate.

Motion: to modify verbiage in the UAF catalog concerning how credit acquired from National exams can be used to satisfy UAF ‘core’ requirements.

see below—underlined statement to be added

There are several ways to earn college credit by receiving a passing score on a national exam. For any of the following exam options, grades are not computed in the UAF GPA. Credit is awarded to current or previously enrolled degree students at UAF. Rules that apply to transfer courses (including the Table of Substitutions) also apply to course credit received through a National Exam.

Justification: It has been the traditional policy of the Registrar’s office to treat credit earned from national exams in the same way that it treats transfer credits. However, nowhere can a statement be found that indicates such is the case. Adding the underlined statement above will make that policy clear.

F. Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) minor – approved by Ad Comm – moving to February faculty senate meeting

1. Update on Ad Comm discussion of budget situation in relation to this motion (and others brought forward)
   It was noted that new and existing Minors are exempt from program review.

MOTION:
The UAF Faculty Senate moves to approve a new minor in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), housed in the CLA Department of Linguistics.

Effective: Fall 2015

Rationale: This new minor will effectively prepare students for careers in English as a second language (ESL) teaching in the U.S. and abroad. See the program proposal #18-UNP on file in the Governance Office, 312B Signers’ Hall.

G. Aerospace engineering minor update – Michael Hatfield is supposed to be sending me information in advance of our meeting on Monday, so I hope to have a handout which answers the specific questions we have about the proposal. I will send this around as soon as I get it and have copies for the meeting. He has agreed to come to a future meeting if we have additional questions or require more clarification.

Support for the new minor was expressed by the Registrar’s Office as they get enquiries from students. In spite of the large number of required credits to obtain this minor, it was agreed it still had merit. It was felt that language in the proposal alluding to future degree programs in the field should be removed because of the budget situation. Brian will contact Michael Hatfield about removing the statement from the Format 3B form. The proposal (as requested to be revised) was approved to move forward to the Administrative Committee (for the March Faculty Senate meeting).
IV. New business

A. Revisions to current bylaws

Who on the committee is allowed to vote, and what constitutes a quorum were discussed at length. The topic of what actions the committee can take with and without a quorum was discussed. The recent online discussions of the TESOL and AE minors were good examples of how online communication can function effectively. The TESOL minor was a simple proposal to approve without controversy. The AE minor, on the other hand, involved some controversy in the online discussion and was recommended for further discussion at the scheduled meeting.

- Considerations for All Senate Committees:
  - A standard format for all committee bylaws with two sections: (1) a description of the committee’s charge and (2) rules related to membership, voting, etc.
  - Can committee chairs vote? According to Roberts’ Rule committee chairs generally do not vote, but considering the size and nature of our committees that may be neither necessary nor desirable.
  - What constitutes a quorum? Again, we need to consider the size of our committees.
  - Do we allow electronic voting? If so, under what circumstances and how should it be done How do we want to manage absences by members? While most people come fairly regularly or all the time, some do not. This not only disrupts the work of the committee they are a member of but also makes activities reporting and workload assignments unfair.
  - Similarly, some Fairbanks-based members only attend by phone, especially if they would have to go to the other side of campus. This makes committee work more difficult and sometimes less thorough, especially since members who attend by phone often “multi-task” and do not pay focused attention.

- Considerations for Standing Committees:
  - Voting members must be Senators or Alternates; can have non-voting ex-officio members.
  - Rules for representation of units? This is currently done for some committees (e.g., Unit Criteria). It would be very difficult to accomplish this for all permanent committees because some units are very small and individual Senators have personal preferences for committees.
  - Remove sections that are instructions for stakeholders rather than bylaws.

Minutes for Wednesday, January 14, 2015

Members Present: Jane Weber, Derek Sikes, Megan McPhee, Diana Di Stefano, Mary Ehrlander, Kayt Sunwood

Members absent: Michelle Bartlett, Erin Pettit, Jenny Liu, Ellen Lopez

Members on sabbatical: Amy Barnsley

2. Spring Conversation Café: Ellen and the committee (Kayt, Erin, & Mary) have not yet met to plan this, but will soon.

3. Promotion/Tenure workshop: Friday April 24th 10am-12pm (-1pm), Springfest day, place TBD probably Regents Conference Room in Butrovitch. Discussion of plan to try a new idea to have 3 breakout tables, preparing for 4th year review, going up for tenure, and post tenure. Discussion of difficult logistics of running 3 tables for the remote audience (which is a large audience for this event normally). Idea to do break outs is in response to past experiences when attendees asked very specific questions that weren't of much general interest/value. Discussion returned to idea of original design which has worked so well in the past, with the addition of adding an initial comment that attendees are encouraged to ask questions during the Q&A but given the limited time, we will encourage them to focus on questions of general interest and to save very specific questions for one-on-one after the event (and extend event to 1pm if we can get the room for that long). Also – keep the focus on planning strategically for one's academic career. 5-7 minutes per panelist with a notice given to speakers at the 5 minute mark. Kayt will manage the flier preparation and distribution. Add idea to poll attendees at start, how many are preparing for 4th year review, going up for tenure, or post-tenure?

Panelists were discussed: Ginny Eckert (full), Mary Ehrlander (full), Diana Di Stefano, Ellen Lopez. Derek will ask Diana Wolf. Jane will try to find someone in CRCD (College of Rural and Community Development).

Respectfully Submitted, Derek Sikes, These minutes are archived on the CSW website:

2. Promotion/Tenure workshop: Friday April 24th 10am-12pm (-1pm), Springfest day, place TBD probably Regents Conference Room in Butrovitch. Discussion about the current climate of shrinking budgets and anticipation of greater levels of concern from attendees. Uncertainty about possible changes made to the handling of workloads and related issues discussed. We would like to invite someone who is particularly knowledgeable about these issues. Alex Fitts would be ideal - Mary will invite her to talk for the first 5 minutes.

Also – keep the focus on planning strategically for one's academic career. 5-7 minutes per panelist with a notice given to speakers at the 5 minute mark. Kayt will manage the flier preparation and distribution. Add idea to poll attendees at start, how many are preparing for 4th year review, going up for tenure, or post-tenure? Jane will check on food & coffee from Faculty Senate.

Six panelists: Ginny Eckert (full), Mary Ehrlander (full), Diana Di Stefano, Ellen Lopez. Derek asked Diana Wolf, who agreed. Jane invited Sandra Wildfeuer (interior Aleutians campus, Associate Professor), who agreed.

3. Spousal Hires. Kayt raised the issue of more spousal hiring problems, 3-4 recent losses of faculty related to this issue. Likely to get worse as budgets shrink and likely to impact female faculty more than male.

Respectfully Submitted, Derek Sikes, These minutes are archived on the CSW website: http://www.uaf.edu/uafgov/faculty-senate/committees/14-15-csw/
Student Academic Development and Achievement Committee (SADA)
Meeting Minutes for December 12, 2014

Attending: Cindy Hardy, Libby Eddy, Alex Fitts, Jennifer Tilbury, Curt Szuberla, Ben Kuntz, Colleen Angiak, Sandra Wildfeuer

The committee met and discussed the following items:

Meeting times: We discussed possible meeting times for next semester. At least for the group gathered, it seems like Thursday or Friday afternoons will work best. Cindy or Jayne will send out a Doodle poll to find a regular monthly time for Spring semester. We may meet the week before classes start.

Regional Educational Labs Northwest: We discussed a presentation on a report presented by REL on Developmental Ed in the UA system. REL was contacted by the AK State Board of Education and the Board of Regents and asked to do this study. Members of SADA went to the presentation and agreed to write up a response to the data presented. The committee had the following comments:

The data presented suggested that a combination of HS GPA and Accuplacer gave slightly better course placement than either GPA or Accuplacer alone. However, we noted that there may be some assumptions in the data that need to be clarified. For example, if they are comparing our DEV data to national data, they need to note that our DEV 105 (Intermediate Algebra) is considered part of the Math sequence at other universities.

We also noted that the data is only looking at students who recent AK high school graduates. However, one member reported a statistic Dana Thomas related that 70% of developmental ed students are not recent HS grads, so using HS GPA is not the primary placement tool.

We also noted that the study only looks at students intending to get a bachelor’s degree. This means that students who are taking Certificate or Associate programs were not included. Along these lines we wondered if students who were in AA or AS programs were included or if students in the “Bachelors-intended” or premajor programs were included. We discussed the definition of “Bachelor’s Intended”: students who don’t have the core preparation for admission to a degree program. These students are not considered bachelors and not considered associates students, but are in their own category. Since the report is state-wide, we wondered if UAA or UAS have a similar system. We noted that UAF policy in English and Math involves placement by test scores, with a little wiggle room in English. Starting this semester, however, all math placement is done through ALEKS scores.

This led to a discussion of placement and advising in Math and English overall, including differences in placement for rural and urban Native students, advising work-arounds to current placement policies, and questions about whether the assessments for DEVE cover what students will be covering in their classes. We noted that UAF, UAA, and UAS are three different schools with different student populations. We questioned why, with our departments looking at data and analyzing it, outside researchers were called in to generate this report. We also asked why ACT and SAT scores were used in the study, when they are not designed as placement tools and are poor predictors of success in particular classes. We noted that the ACT, SAT, and WorkKeys are now taking the place of the HS Qualifying exam; however, only the ACT and SAT are used for College admission.

Statewide Alignment: Sandra reported that the statewide committee to align Math/DEV courses met and agreed to some alignment of courses. The committee is made up of the chairs of Math departments and developmental math departments or programs at all three Universities. They have agreed on a system of common numbering, based on UAA’s current numbering. They are still discussing a common designator; however, both UAA and UAS currently use MATH as their developmental math designator, so the designator change only needs to be resolved at UAF. These changes still need to be approved by the campuses. They anticipate these changes being ready for the Fall 2015 catalog.

Cindy reported that the alignment committee for ENGL/DEVE has not yet met, but has exchanged e-mail. The committee consists of the chairs and program heads of ENGL, DEVE, and Composition from all three Universities. The committee will take up the work of the Community of Practice, which resulted in placement changes and alignment in ENGL and DEVE across the UA system. Cindy noted that, for ENGL 111, 211, 213, there is already alignment of course numbering and designator. The difficulty will be in aligning developmental courses: UAF uses DEVE, UAA uses PRPE, and UAS uses ENGL. UAF also has reading classes under a separate (DEVS) designator. Cindy notes that she is leaning toward proposing a new designator that would encompass all academic writing and reading classes, such as WRTG.

We also noted that the GERC process is on hold, waiting for a statewide group to be appointed by Faculty Alliance to reach agreement on alignment of general education requirements.

Survey of obstacles to student success: This is an idea that we have been putting on the back burner for a while. We discussed how to develop a survey to get at what happens to the students that disappear, or that do not do well.

In general, the committee is interested in going forward with this project. Alex suggested using Survey Monkey and suggested that we develop questions by starting with what information we want types of questions. She noted that using Survey Monkey won’t cost anything because UA has an account, but that we might need incentives help to get students to complete the survey. We agreed that we should include rural students. Cindy noted that the Nontraditional Student Club on campus has done a similar questionnaire of members. Alex suggested that we target students that have had academic difficulty, rather than asking all students to participate.

We discussed possible groupings, such as if a student has an F, or W, or NB on their transcript, they would get the survey.

Alex noted that students will get a warning when their GPA drops below 2.3 or they have more than one I, W, NB in a semester. We could tie the survey in with this warning. We also agreed to try to make this contact helpful and encouraging after they get a warning: “UAF really cares, what troubles did you have, what can we do about it?” If we can do this, without a great cost to university, it can have positive impact on students.

Next meeting: January 22, 2-3:30 pm
I. Kelly Houlton called the meeting to order at 4:05 pm.

II. Roll call
Present: Bill Barnes, Diana DiStefano, Andrea Ferrante, Mark Herrmann, Brian Himelbloom, Kelly Houlton, Duff Johnston, Chris Lott, Trina Mamoon, Joy Morrison, Channon Price, Paul Reichardt (visiting), Leslie Shallcross, Amy Vinlove
Excused: Franz Meyer
Absent: Cindy Fabbri

III. Report by UAF eLearning & Distance Education and the Office of Faculty Development

Chris reported that eLearning & Distance will be offering an online presentation on February 12 from 1 – 2 pm about “Making the World Your Lab”. Their third Thursday presentation with OIT for February is on Presence and Participation in Online Classrooms (February 19 from noon – 1 pm). Chris also reminded us that applications are open for the iTeach 4-day workshops March 6, 9, 11 and 13. Applications can be found at http://iteach.uaf.edu/about/

Joy reported that she would like to take a few new faculty members to the Lilly West conference in California this spring. She also said she would like to take a member from the FDAI committee to the POD conference next fall in San Francisco. Joy informed us that she met with several Faculty Development specialists while she was in South Africa and will invite some of them to the POD conference as well.

IV. News on Electronic Course Assessment Implementation Committee (ECAI)

Andrea reported that the ECAI committee has been developing the core questions for this spring’s pilot of the electronic course evaluations as well as working with PAIR on identifying a student cohort (aiming for 10% of students with a good cross section of classes, colleges and delivery methods). This is proving to be tricky because of the large amount of work PAIR is doing right now. He informed us that the committee is now working on about four open-comment questions. He and Sally Skrip met via phone with a representative from eXplorance Blue last Friday and set up the milestones for the next few months in order to have the evaluations made available to students by April 20. Next week will be a “kick-off” meeting with eXplorance Blue to learn more about what information they will need from Banner and Blackboard. Last week Andrea and CP attended the ASUAF meeting to get some student feedback on the core questions as they stand now. The core questions will be posted on the Faculty Senate web page for a week to gather faculty feedback.

V. Discussion with Dr. Paul Reichardt on the State of Faculty Development at UAF

We asked Dr. Reichardt for his input and perspective on creating a stronger faculty development culture on campus. He shared the following things to consider/keep in mind: 1) this is a challenge at other institutions as well; 2) one of the best and most popular opportunities was to offer advice via senior faculty members on promotion and tenure; 3) activities that are requested by faculty will give us presentations that will be attended and sends a clear message that the OFD is here for faculty; 4) identify two or three institutional priorities: where is UAF not living up to its potential (IAS results?); 5) do not dwell entirely on lack of attendance – if what you are delivering is providing a real benefit for a few faculty members then that is a good thing; 6) find out answers to these questions: Where are faculty in their instructional development? What do faculty really think about outcomes assessment? What comes out of it that is of value? There must be some sort of interest or perceived need from faculty for “Faculty Development” to succeed; 7) keep in mind there are as many challenges facing research faculty as there are for teaching faculty; 8) have attendees of presentations/workshops outside of UAF share the information that was covered with their fellow UAF faculty; 9) if the Tuesday 1 – 2 pm time slot is a problem, make use of what is already scheduled, such as the GI weekly seminar series, CLA faculty meeting times, meeting with Deans and Directors, etc.; 10) consider applying a filter to the survey results Joy has already collected – maybe we already have the information we need; and 11) develop an online tutorial that faculty can access on their own time.

During our discussion, several points were brought up. Paul shared a handout with us listing examples of faculty development activities at three universities. These included matching funds for travel, scholarship, equipment, etc. by partnering with other agencies; a listing of whom to call for help with things like instructional design, devising essay questions, etc.; interdisciplinary mentoring; an Annual Assessment Academy to examine practices and impacts of outcomes-based assessment of student learning; and co-sponsored grant-writing workshops. While the three universities were anonymous, Paul offered to identify them to Joy if any of these particular points were of interest.

Some of the challenges that were discussed were finding meeting days and times that work for most faculty, making sure that awareness of any faculty development opportunities – whether they are offered through the OFD, OIT or eLearning and Distance Education – is consistently and cohesively made available to faculty, limited capacity for in-depth workshops/presentations, and funding shortfalls. Paul explained that when he initially set up the Office of Faculty Development he had some money to do so and wanted a better way of addressing faculty needs than just reacting to requests. He also noted that since there was a lack of interest on campus in high-quality teaching, he wanted to encourage very talented research-oriented faculty to be able to teach their classes more effectively. He suggested (as noted above) to identify two or three areas that UAF needs to work on and let that drive our approach instead of relying on a push from the Provost or Chancellor. Mark noted that a lot of professional development happens informally between colleagues. CP brought up the issue that since so many “specialists” are available these days it seems that faculty are less involved with being good “generalists”. He believes that this changes the need for faculty development. But Paul opined that maybe it just changes the focus of faculty development.

We were all very grateful for Dr. Reichardt sharing his wisdom and suggestions with our committee. He gave us a lot to consider and offered the encouragement that maybe it is not as bad as it seems.
