READ THIS INFORMATION
Do you need to stay on campus over winter break? We have some options available for you. Remember to make your reservation in advance, as space is limited.

Residence Life's residence halls close on Sunday, December 20, 2015 at 12:00PM (Noon) and officially open Tuesday, January 12, 2016 at 8:00AM. Residents who stay after hall closing or return before halls open need to complete the winter break housing application. Students that apply for housing before 5:00PM Friday, October 30, 2015 will receive a $100 discount.

COST
The winter break housing rate is $550. The non-refundable charge will be billed to your student account unless the reservation is canceled in person or in writing by 4:00PM Friday, November 28, 2015.

Only current residents of the Cutler Apartment Complex and Sustainable Village will be permitted to remain in their own room during the break at no additional charge. Students living in Cutler and the Sustainable Village, who are not staying for Spring 2016 semester, must move out by Monday, January 4, 2016 by 12:00PM (Noon).

LOCATION
All residents requesting break housing will be housed in a the hall(s) with the largest winter break student population (typically Bartlett and Wickersham Halls). Due to space limitations students may be assigned roommates for winter break. Space is available on a first-come, first serve basis.

Any student without a winter break housing contract who accesses a building during the break period will be assessed the full break housing charge amount. In addition, any student who accesses a hall without a winter break housing contract will be referred to the Residence Life judicial process.
