UAF Alumni Association 2021 – 2025 Strategic Plan

2021 UAFAA SWOT Analysis – this is our story!
Our Enablers (Strengths & Opportunities)	Our Challenges (Threats & Weaknesses)
STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES
Diverse board, geographically well represented	ED duties only 15% of position description
Opportunities for alumni to connect	Lack of resources and support staff for ED
We are alumni willing to help	The only times alumni are contacted are for money
Support positive and essential projects for students	Unaware of how much we give to UAF
Recognize alumni achievements	Paying dues excludes many
Love for the institution	Alumni don't know who we are
Independence! 501c3	Not engaging with younger alums
Recognized brand on campus	Difficult to get alumni to run for the board
Keeps me connected to UAF	Board transparency
We are Alaskans! We get things done	Ineffective at engaging current students
Dedicated board	Lack of meaningful outreach to alumni outside AK
Active community of alumni in Fairbanks	Board gets bogged down in the weeds
Network of UAF alumni with a shared interest in the success of UAF
Executive director's leadership
Scholarship support	THREATS
Diversity of thought and experience on the board
Provide financial support to UAF organizations	Decreasing budget, brain drain
Providing a way to stay connected to the university	Not finding the right people to fill board seats
, , ,	Diminished membership and relevance
OPPORTUNITIES	More difficult political landscape
	The struggle to be relevant to new or recent graduates
Grow the brand	Petty internal politics
Grow the donor base via the Benefactor Fund	Us vs. them when dealing with the university.
Grow the relationship with UAF athletics	Failure of membership to grow proportionately
A well-developed website	Lack of awareness on value of higher education
Engage younger alums	Infighting amongst the three universities
Free membership – Every alum is a member	Becoming too clubby and clicky;
Growing membership numbers outside Alaska	Member apathy
Nanook Network	Welliber apacity
