

Table 4.1b Outcomes Assessment Implementation Summary Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree
Complete a separate table for each degree and certificate program (will be updated through 2009-10 for Accrued.)
	Academic Year
	2010-11	2011-12	2012-13
Assessment information collected and conclusions drawn	Six students were surveyed. One student is employed as an art administrator. One student has been admitted into the Northern Studies Masters program. One student had a recent exhibit in a California gallery. Several students continue to produce and exhibit work.	Eight graduates were surveyed. One student is completing his MFA at Pratt Institute. One student has enjoyed the success of a number of commissions, shows and workshops, including a presentation at the Smithsonian Institute. Two students are pursuing their education degrees. Several students continue to produce and exhibit work.	Five students were surveyed. One student has been hired as a computer graphic artist at the UAMN. One student is applying to a Masters program in fine art. One student continues to work in church administration. Several students continue to produce and exhibit work.
Conclusions drawn from the information collected above	UAF BFA Art graduates enjoy
Curricular changes resulting from conclusions drawn above	No curricular changes warranted	No curricular changes warranted	No curricular changes warranted