

UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS
ART DEPARTMENT

Table 4.1b Outcomes Assessment Implementation Summary
Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree

Complete a separate table for each degree and certificate program (will be updated through 2009-10 for Accrued.)

	Academic Year
	2007-08	2008-09	2009-10
Assessment information collected	Eleven graduates	Five graduates	Four graduates Curriculum modified for Art F499. As a requirement for this class, students present an oral public presentation on their thesis and body of work.
Conclusions drawn from the information collected above	Graduates from this year have clearly demonstrated success in the art field. One has completed a one year art residency and is in graduate school in Montana, one is pursuing a Masters in Education and two more are applying to grad school. Three are employed at local galleries. One is employed as a photographer/artist. Two have had solo exhibitions since graduation, and one has a show coming up. One student is about to start painting two large commissioned murals on several buildings, and one is traveling and painting.	One student is applying to graduate school. One is a free lance artist in Juneau. Another graduate has recently finished a solo exhibition and is working for Ice Alaska.	One student is an intern at the Hiroshima City Museum of Art and is applying to graduate school. Another graduate is applying to MFA Art programs, and one is employed at Lowes but continues to produce art.
Curricular changes resulting from conclusions drawn above	No curricular changes warranted	No curricular changes warranted	BFA students participate in an oral public presentation.