

College/School University of Alaska Fairbanks
 Department/Unit Department of Alaska Native and Rural Development Program College of Rural and Community Development

Table 4.1 Outcomes Assessment Implementation Summary

Same table for BA,MA
	Academic Year
	2006-07	2007-08	2008-09
Assessment information collected	End of semester student surveys Graduate surveys Employer surveys	End of semester student surveys Graduate surveys Employer surveys	End of semester student surveys Graduate surveys Employer surveys
Conclusions drawn from the information collected above	Writing skills below par Employment rate of graduates remains steady	Employment rate of graduates remains high; graduates taking high profile management and leadership positions. MA grads moving on to doctoral studies	Enrollment down slightly due to poor economy but employment rate continues to be high. Changes needed to RD 352 to streamline course materials. ANCSA CEOs requested that department offer more coursework on ANCSA.
Curricular changes resulting from conclusions drawn above	No changes in curriculum, but increased efforts to refer students to writing center for assistance	No changes to curriculum but expanded outreach to increase program diversity	Marketing efforts increased Implemented establishment of student portfolios. Recommendation for change to RD 352 submitted to Academic Program Head. Hired extra faculty to work on course development Added two courses on ANCSA and working on the development of a third.