

UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS
Student Learning Outcomes Assessment Plan
Construction Management A.A.S. Degree
UAF Community & Technical College

Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose	Intended Objectives/Outcomes	Assessment Criteria and Procedures	Implementation (what, when, who)
MISSION STATEMENT: The construction management program prepares students for work as entry level construction managers and provides continuing education for construction employees. GOAL STATEMENT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Prepare students for employment in a variety of construction project management related positions for Owners, Designers and Contractors. ◦ Provide a unique learning environment where students can obtain high quality education in the field of construction management in Alaska. ◦ Be responsive to the continuing education needs of current and former construction employees. 	Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of: The roles and responsibilities of participants in the design and construction processes. Construction documents including drawings, specifications, contracts and various formats of CM communications, reporting and record keeping. Construction materials, equipment and techniques; with emphasis on cold-climate requirements. Construction cost estimating, budgeting, planning and scheduling. Construction safety management.	Each CM course syllabus lists specific objectives. Students will be evaluated on their comprehension of these learning objectives through assignments, project work and testing.	Instructors will track answers to key exam questions to measure student achievement of intended course learning outcomes each semester.
	Graduates will meet expected outcomes in communications, computation and human relations as listed in the core curriculum	ENGL 111X & 212, COMM 131/141 and MATH 107 & 108 provide communications and computation. Human relations skills topics embedded in the CM course content. Students will be evaluated in each course on their comprehension of these learning objectives through assignments, discussions and testing.	Listed communications and computation programs will be consulted annually for verification Human relations outcomes assessment: a.) Instructors will track answers to key exam questions. b.) Instructor will interview students and survey their supervisors at completion of the CM F299 Internship course.

Draft B Revised 18 May 2012 G. Johnson