INTRODUCTION TO ACCOUNTING RECRUITMENT WEEKS

During Accounting Recruitment Weeks, an average of 9 local and national accounting firms visit UAF to recruit interns and full-time employees from our talent pool. This event occurs annually in September and October and allows students to learn about accounting careers as well as engage and interview with potential employers.

Whether you’re applying for an internship or seeking a career after graduation, Accounting Recruitment Weeks are an integral step in the right direction.

WHAT TO EXPECT

RECENT CHANGES

Accounting Recruitment takes place hardly a month after the semester begins so it’s a busy time for everyone, especially those who’ve had little time to prepare for the event. Additionally, the combination of returning from summer break and varying application deadlines can make it difficult to stay on track. Here’s what we’ve changed to address these issues:

▸ Created a Spring Accounting Recruitment Weeks Orientation (so you’re not caught by surprise in the Fall)
▸ Opened applications on Friday, August 2nd (so you can apply sooner)
▸ Consolidated application deadlines (instead of 300 deadlines, there are only two)

In the past, it’s been difficult to find information on Accounting Recruitment--where to apply, how to apply, deadlines, information sessions, etc.

With this booklet you have all the information at your finger tips.

To ensure that you have the most up-to-date version, check our website regularly or follow Career Services on Facebook (@uafcareer) for notices on booklet updates.
1. RESEARCH AND PREPARE

Research the recruiting accounting firms and the accounting profession in general. If you attended the Alaska Native Corporation Seminar, KPMG’s Etiquette Dinner, and/or GAAP Spring Break Trip during the spring semester, now would be a good time to go over any notes you took.

- Attend as many information sessions as you can
- Become a Great Alaskan Accounting People (GAAP) member— all of their meetings and events are focused on professional development specific to the accounting profession

2. APPLY

Update your resume, think of experiences you can tie into cover letters, know your transferable skills (what you’ve learned in classes and previous jobs), and make sure you have at least three professional references ready if asked. Have these materials reviewed by more than one person.

Visit Career Services’ website for resume and cover letter resources: uaf.edu/career.

3. INTERVIEW

If you are selected to interview, the recruiter will reach out to you to schedule a time. All interviews will be in Bunnell 109.

Schedule an appointment with Career Services to practice your interview skills.

4. FOLLOW UP

Whether or not you get the job, send a thank you card or email to the recruiters you interviewed with. If you haven’t heard back from a recruiter more than one week after your interview, email or call the firm to follow up.

All related events, deadlines, and interview dates can be found in the “Master Schedule” on pages 5 and 6.
For a list of resources, see “Student Resources” on page 30.
To help keep you on track, there is also a “Checklist” on page 29.
EMPLOYER EXPECTATIONS

After every Accounting Recruitment event, we ask recruiters, “What advice would you give applicants who plan to interview next year?”

See what they had to say:

Have a plan ready for obtaining your CPA license. Altman, Rogers & Co. (2018)

Apply sooner than the day of the deadline or after it is extended. BDO USA, LLP (2018)

Participate as much as you can. Feniks & Company, LLC (2016)

You will benefit from resume help and interview practice. RJG A Professional Corporation, CPAs (2018)

Work on questions for the interviewer and really think about the type of firm you want to work for. Robinson & Ward, PC (2015)

Give the interview and the process 100% even if you are not sure where you want to end up. You never know who knows who or when you will see someone again. First impressions matter. State of Alaska Division of Legislative Audit (2018)

Review the website of the companies you are interviewing for. Walsh Kelliher & Sharp (2015)

Never be afraid to ask questions. Make sure your contact numbers and email addresses are current and up-to-date. Wilson & Wilson CPAs, Inc. (2018)

All responses were collected by Career Services through a survey of participating recruiters after UAF Accounting Recruitment Weeks in 2015, 2016, and 2018.

Division of Legislative Audit

Division Overview

The Alaska Division of Legislative Audit is the State of Alaska’s independent auditor and serves as one of the Legislature’s most significant “checks” in the balance of powers with the executive and judicial branches of government. The Division’s primary responsibility is to hold government agencies accountable to the laws enacted by the legislature by conducting financial, federal compliance, and performance audits.

Mission Statement: “Enhance Government Operations and Accountability”

History

The Division was established by the Territorial Legislature in 1955. Prior to that time, the only audit function that existed was in the Office of the Auditor in the executive branch. In establishing the position of Legislative Auditor and the Division, the Legislature recognized the need for impartial auditing by an agency directly responsible to the Legislature. All audits performed by the Division are external audits; that is, they are performed by an auditor who is independent of the executive head of the government unit or agency being audited.

Audits

Financial-Compliance Audit. A financial-compliance audit determines (a) whether financial operations are properly conducted; (b) whether the financial reports of an agency are presented fairly; and (c) whether the entity has complied with applicable laws, regulations, administrative policies, and legislative intent.

Performance Audit. A performance audit is conducted to provide the Legislature an evaluation of whether administrators of an agency have faithfully, efficiently, and effectively administered a program. The Division has the authority to conduct performance audits of any agency of State government at the direction of the Legislative Budget and Audit Committee.

Feniks & Company is a consultation-focused firm serving individuals, non-profit organizations, and small, closely-held businesses. Our philosophy is to practice accounting as a healing art. We believe that knowledge shared is power, while knowledge kept is meaningless. Our goal is to empower our clients in the management of financial and business demands that might otherwise be viewed as burdensome, tedious or overwhelming. Our clients enjoy good financial health when they understand their tax and business according to evolving circumstances that influence choices. We provide all of the usual accounting services (tax returns, payroll, bookkeeping, etc.) but with an emphasis on educating our clients so that they can walk into a banker’s office for a loan and speak knowingly and confidently about their plans.

Mission and Vision

Our mission is to empower our clients, our staff, and our community. We empower our clients by helping them to improve their financial literacy and understand their financial lives. We empower our staff by helping them to enhance their professional knowledge, skills, and abilities, and by encouraging them to develop a sense of purpose in their lives which brings independence, joy, and satisfaction. We empower our community by empowering non-profit clients, supporting local businesses, and contributing to local causes.

Our vision is to practice accounting as a healing art. We apply a holistic approach to the financial well-being of our clients, much the way a family doctor approaches the well-being of her patients. Our values are compassion, integrity, mutual respect, sharing of knowledge, community involvement, and lifelong learning. We visit, we listen, we assess, we teach, we learn, we share, and we care.
