| I certify I am in compliance with all licensing and insurance requirements for the State of Alaska. I agree to notify my supervisor, by the next working day, of any changes to my compliance status, any moving violations I may receive, and to IMMEDIATELY notify my supervisor of any accidents. I have read and understand the information included in the Transportation Safety Guide. I understand the university's insurance for its vehicles is effective only when the vehicle is being used for authorized university business purposes by an authorized driver. I understand the transportation of passengers who are not University of Alaska employees should first be cleared by my supervisor and the university does not carry insurance for non-employee passengers. | | |

* Driving Record Types (What's the difference?)

Full Individual Record:

Shows current driving record status, and includes all convictions, license actions, and at-fault accidents on record; includes full medical certification details for commercial (CDL) drivers.

Insurance Record:

Shows current driving record status, and 3 or 5 year history of convictions, license actions, and at-fault accidents required for vehicle insurance purposes; excludes any medical certification information on record. (3 or 5 year reporting requirement is based on the type of conviction or action.)

CDL Employment Record:

Shows current driving record status; full medical certification information; and conviction, license action, and at-fault accident information as required by DOT regulations for commercial (CDL) drivers. CDL drivers must select this type of record when used for CDL employment purposes.
