

Graduate Program in Marine Science and Limnology
Student Outcome Assessment – Graduate Accomplishments Form

The following information is to be filled out by the student upon submitting their thesis or dissertation to the GPMSL program head for approval.

Name:

Degree:

Year/Semester graduating:

Thesis Title:

A. List any peer-reviewed publications resulting from the student's thesis or dissertation (please include everything in press, in revision, submitted, and in prep):

B. List any reports or other publications resulting from the student's thesis or dissertation (please include everything in press, in revision, submitted, and in prep):

C. List any publications resulting from other research (not related to thesis work) contributed by the student while enrolled in GPMSL:

D. List presentations given on the student's graduate research at meetings, seminars, workshops, and other public forums:

E. List any outreach or service opportunities that involved the student's research that does not fit into D above:

F. List the specific lab or analytical skills you have acquired

G. List any awards you have received during your graduate career

H. List any field courses and/or field experiences you had during your graduate career