BASIC INFORMATION

When to use this form:
This housing application is for single graduate student, single undergraduate student over the age of 26, faculty or employee in the first year of employment, or undergraduate student with dependents.

IF YOU DO NOT FIT INTO ANY OF THE CATEGORIES ABOVE THEN YOU DO NOT QUALIFY FOR FAMILY, EMPLOYEE, GRADUATE, NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENT HOUSING AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS. Note: Exempt employees do not qualify for Faculty/Employee housing. Persons who have maintained a residence in the North Star Borough for a period of one year or more immediately prior to their employment by the University are not eligible for faculty/staff housing. Single undergraduate students over 26 years of age are eligible for Harwood units only.

Application Processing Fee:
$75.00 non-refundable application fee.

Application vs Agreement:
This application is a request to be placed on a waiting list for housing. This is not an agreement for housing.

Applicant Responsibility:
Incomplete applications are not processed. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that their application is completed and ready for processing.

Short-term vs Long-term Housing Agreements:
Student housing agreements are for an academic calendar year (short-term). Employee housing agreements are for a calendar year (long term).

FIND RATES, FLOOR PLANS, & HOUSING FORMS AT WWW.UAF.EDU/RESLIFE

Residence Life will process COMPLETED applications in the order received. HOUSING OFFERS WILL BE SENT VIA EMAIL as units become available.

HOUSING DEPOSITS ARE $600. An initial deposit of $300 is due two (2) weeks after acceptance of a housing offer. The remaining balance of the housing deposit and prorated rent are due upon move in. Cancelling housing after acceptance of a housing offer will result in forfeiture of the initial $300 deposit payment.

• Un-married couples with and without children must complete and notarized Financial Interdependence Form.
• Married couples must provide a copy of their marriage certificate.
• Birth certificates (copy, not original) are required for all children listed on the housing application.
• UAF Campus is smoke and tobacco free. BOR Policy P05.12.102
• Family, Graduate and Non-Traditional Students are not allowed to store weapons in Residence Life Facilities. Storage is available through the UAF Police Department.

At the time of occupancy, the student applicant must be enrolled for at least six (6) undergraduate credits or six (6) graduate credits per semester at UAF. Online and year-long correspondence courses do not fulfill this requirement.

• Each student application will remain on file for two (2) years from the date received. Each employee application will remain on file for one (1) year from the date received. Please keep your contact information current with The Department of Residence Life Office.

• Residence Life will offer a maximum of two (2) housing assignments to each applicant. Applicants will be removed from the wait-list if they:
  A. Fail to respond to the first housing offer within 2 weeks
  B. Decline both housing offers

• UAF is an AA/EO employer and educational institution and prohibits illegal discrimination against any individual: www.alaska.edu/nondiscrimination.
The Department reserves the right to end the policy at any time without notice. The continuance of the policy will require pet owners to comply with the policies provided below and to control their pets in a mature manner. The Department also reserves the right to limit the total number of pets on campus or the number of pets in a specific housing area. The Pet Fee and Pet Deposit that is due upon Occupant’s entrance into the Premises is the same amount regardless of whether there are one or two pets.

SINGLE STUDENT HOUSING: The following facilities are included in this category for the purposes of this policy: Cutler Apartment Complex, Moore Hall, Bartlett Hall, Skarland Hall, Wickersham Hall, McIntosh Hall, Nerland Hall, Stevens Hall, Lathrop Hall, Garden Apartments and Harwood Hall). These policies apply to all units in these facilities.

Fish are the only type of pet permitted in single student housing. Aquariums may not exceed ten gallons. All residents of the unit must agree to the presence of an aquarium in the unit and all will be held financially responsible for damage and/or cleaning costs associated with aquarium use. If other (non-fish) pets are found in any single student residence facility the following actions will take place:
1. Animal(s) must be removed from the unit.
2. Residents of the unit are financially responsible for damage and/or cleaning costs associated with the pet(s); these costs are above and beyond initial room deposit or non-pet related damages.
3. Residents of the unit will be liable to judicial action and it may result in loss of campus housing privileges.

FAMILY AND FACULTY HOUSING: In addition to fish, residents of family, faculty, and staff housing may have: small caged animals (limit of two small caged animals per household); and dogs and cats; no other animal may be kept as a pet in campus housing. The following conditions apply:

REGISTRATION: All pets must be registered with the Department of Residence Life. Dogs and cats must wear an owner provided tag that identifies the animal, the owner and address; immunization tags must also be worn. In addition owners must:
* Pay a $300 non-refundable fee, per household to register dogs and/or cats on campus (small caged animals require a $100 refundable deposit; fish are exempt from this fee). This fee will cover the administrative costs of the pet program including staff time to conduct inspections, investigate complaints, verify health information, and implement the registration process.
* Pay a $1000 refundable dog and/or cat deposit, per household, in addition to existing residence life deposits (small caged animals pay a $100 refundable deposit, fish are exempt from this fee). This deposit will not be returned until an inspection of the apartment is completed. The return of deposit will occur only after an inspection that is conducted 3-5 days after the unit is vacated. Damages will be assessed and if applicable, additional charges applied to the account.
* Provide proof of a current rabies vaccination for their cat and/or dog.
* Provide proof that their cat and/or dog has been spayed or neutered.
* Submit to periodic short-notice inspections of their units to check for pet related damage.

FAILURE TO COMPLY: Owners who fail to register and/or pay the pet fee and deposit will have both added to their university account. In addition an immediate inspection will be conducted of the housing unit. Additional sanctions up to and including the possible loss of housing privileges, will be imposed.

LIMITATIONS BY FACILITY:
* Dogs are not permitted but cats are permitted in the following facilities: Stuart Hall, Walsh Hall.
* Hess Village units are limited to only one dog or one cat per unit.
* In all family/faculty facilities pets are limited to two pets total.

GENERAL POLICIES:
* No pet may exceed 50 pounds in weight.
* Dogs that bark or make any other noise and cannot be controlled will be removed from campus.
* Dog breeds noted for their aggressive behavior cannot be kept as pets without a waiver from the Director of Residence Life. These include Pit Bull, Rottweiler, Doberman Pinscher and German Shepherd. Owners of these breeds must provide proof of obedience training and demonstrate the dog is not aggressive.
* Dogs cannot be left unattended in a housing unit for more than six consecutive hours.
* Pets must be on a leash when not in the home or vehicle; voice only control is unacceptable.
* No outdoor kenneling is permitted.
* Owners must pick-up and properly dispose of droppings left by their animals. If droppings are found, then the Department of Residence Life may have them cleaned-up and may bill dog owners in the area of the clean-up.
* People staying on campus in a guest status may not have a pet of any sort in campus housing.
* Pets that present a threat or nuisance will be removed from campus.
