

SCHOLARSHIP

BP is offering several merit-based scholarships for the 2014 FALL SEMESTER (school year 2014-2015) for students interested in energy industry careers and as a way to create a pipeline of new talent for BP.

Who is Eligible?

Full-time undergraduate or graduate students who have at least a 3.0 GPA and are admitted to one of the following UAF degree programs:

- Petroleum Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Civil Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Accounting
- Economics
- Business Administration
- Geology
- Geophysics

New this year: interns, former interns, and students entering BP full time during 2014 are no longer eligible for this scholarship.

How do I apply?

Submit the following materials to the UAF Financial Aid Office by 5:00 PM on Tuesday, April 1st, 2014:

- An essay (1 page maximum, 500 words minimum) on the topic: “What unprecedented change or changes need to happen with the State/Federal Energy Policies that would encourage oil & gas activities and promote the nation’s energy independence?”
- A copy of your unofficial transcripts (available at UAonline).
- Your resume or CV (1 page maximum) including contact email address and phone number.

All applications must be received by the deadline, NO EXCEPTIONS.

Then what happens?

Your application materials will be reviewed by BP. Scholarships will be awarded at the discretion of the selection committee. Selected students will receive the scholarship for the Fall 2014 semester. Only selected students will be notified.
