

Dogs in Art

Find dogs. Check the box when you find the artwork.

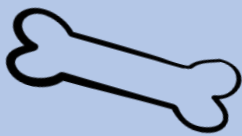

Rose Berry Alaska Art Gallery

Upper Level

Dogs are important in Alaska history as companions, transportation, and guards. Dogs are featured in many works of art in the museum.

As you explore the Rose Berry Alaska Art Gallery, look for dogs in these works.

Can you find others?

☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐☐

Pictured: Untitled, pen and ink on hide by George Ahgupuk, Off to the Trapline by Fred Machetanz, Untitled, oil on fish skin by George Ahgupuk, Danielle and Zouzou, Paris by Jane Terzis, Rescue Dog by Kay Marshall, Winter Morning by M.C. "Rusty" Heurlin, Man and Sled carving (artist unknown), Tanana Woman and Dog by Eustace Ziegler, Two-headed Dog by Stephanie Harlan

Draw your favorite.

