

Gallery of Alaska Main Level

Award-winning exhibits give visitors an introduction to this vast and diverse state. Exhibits focus on the people, wildlife, geography and history of each of Alaska's five major geographic regions.

Exhibit highlights

Tlingit clothing and regalia in the Southeast Gallery.

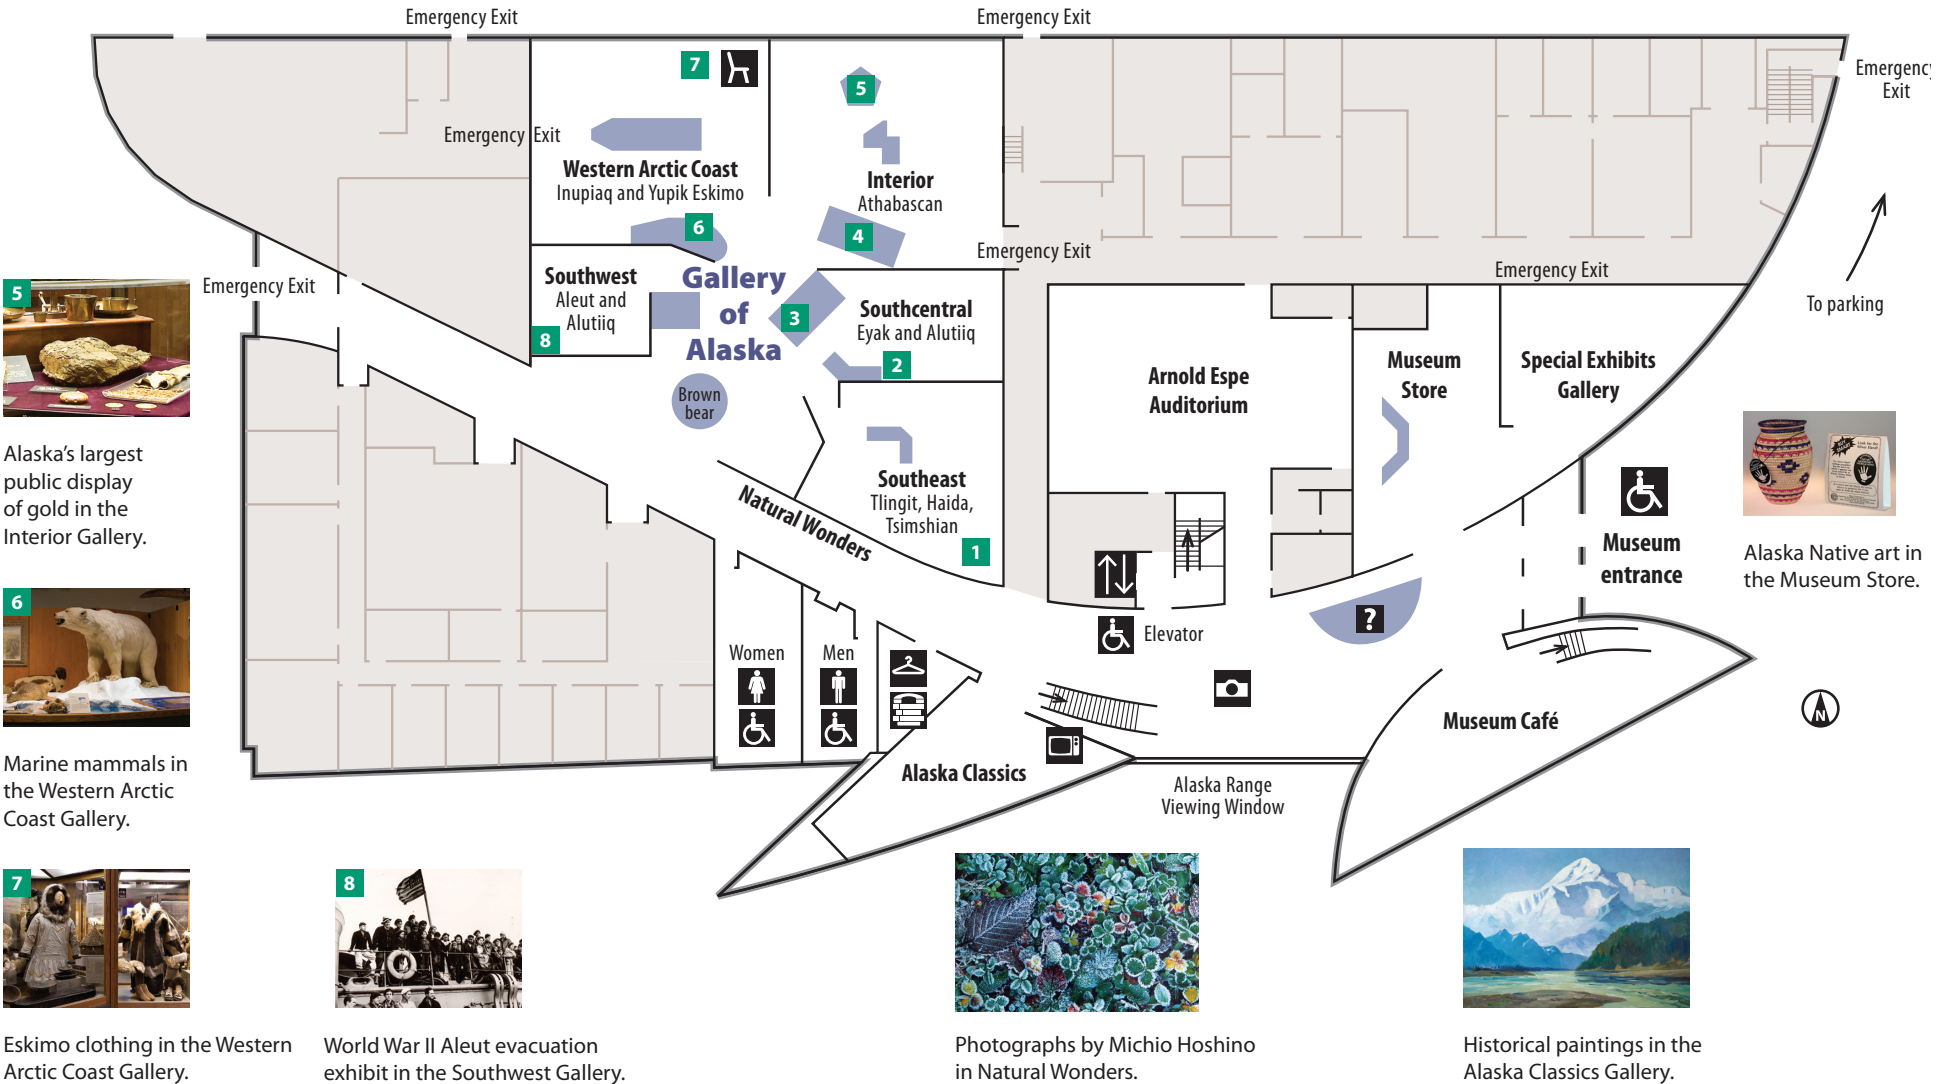

Birds in the Southcentral Gallery with a map illustrating their migration routes.

Mammoth and mastodon bones in the Pleistocene exhibit.

Blue Babe in the Interior Gallery.

Alaska's largest public display of gold in the Interior Gallery.

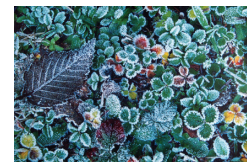

Marine mammals in the Western Arctic Coast Gallery.

Eskimo clothing in the Western Arctic Coast Gallery.

World War II Aleut evacuation exhibit in the Southwest Gallery.

Photographs by Michio Hoshino in Natural Wonders.

Historical paintings in the Alaska Classics Gallery.

Alaska Native art in the Museum Store.