The Power of Us:

Leadership that Builds Strong Communities

Many people in our communities are living on the edge and know we need a different kind of leadership to solve our confounding problems. Our times call for leadership that is courageous, ethical and collaborative. We need to work across the boundaries that divide us and learn how to tap into the collective wisdom of the community. Come and open up to the honest conversations we need to have to advance our communities.

The Collective Leadership Storybook: Weaving Strong Communities ($10) will be available for purchase. Dr. Nienow will hold a book signing session following his presentation.
