The Department of the Navy Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Minority Institutions Programs

The diversity of thought captured at our nation's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) and Minority Institutions (MI) is an important component in sustaining the Navy and Marine Corps' technological superiority. Our HBCU/MI Program is designed to engage both student and faculty researchers at these institutions via Naval relevant internships and grants. We also provide scholarships and fellowships to support our future STEM workforce. To give you an idea, a few of our limitless opportunities are listed below!

STUDENTS

- NRL HBCU/MI Undergraduate Internship Program
10-week internship program for undergraduates to conduct research at the Naval Research Lab (NRL) under the guidance of senior NRL staff.
- NAVAIR Internships
6- to 8-week program for both undergraduates and graduate students to participate in research at a site within the Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR) under the guidance of a mentor.

FACULTY

- Sabbatical Leave Program
Provides fellowship appointments to science and engineering faculty from institutions of higher education to participate in research of mutual interest to the faculty member and peers at U.S. Navy Laboratories for a minimum of one semester to a maximum of one year.
- Summer Faculty Research Program
Provides science and engineering faculty members from colleges and universities the opportunity to participate in research of mutual interest to the faculty member and peers at U.S. Navy Laboratories for a 10-week period.

"When students get an opportunity to come and work at a Naval Warfare Center, they realize it's not just being in uniform."
