

GROWING UP WITH HEROES:

The First Twenty-Nine Code Talkers of World War II.

3-5 p.m. on Saturday,
November 11, 2017

Margaret Murie Building
Auditorium

FREE

Sponsored by the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Rural, Community and Native Education

Find out how the Marine Navajo Code Talkers used their Indigenous language to develop a secret code that baffled the Japanese and helped attain American victory in the Pacific during World War II. In this presentation, historian Zonnie Gorman will share what she learned interviewing the First Twenty-Nine Navajo Code Talkers, including her father, the late Dr. Carl Gorman.
