

In Commemoration of

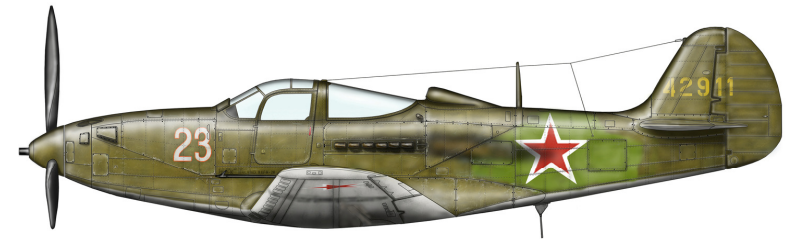

The 75 Anniversary of Lend-Lease

Come learn about the Lend-Lease Program, the American contribution to the Soviet Union's battles in World War II.

Did you know that Fairbanks was a major hub during the war? Ladd Field, now Ft. Wainwright, was the starting point where Russian pilots flew American-made aircraft across Russia to the battle fronts.

Saturday, November 11. 4:00 - 5:30

UAF Gruening Building, room 306

Organized by UAF Russian Program and the Fairbanks/Yakutsk Sister City Community