

Fairbanks Arts 2019 Literary Reading Series featuring Third Year MFA Writers

Saturday, April 13, 7pm in the Bear Gallery, 3rd Floor

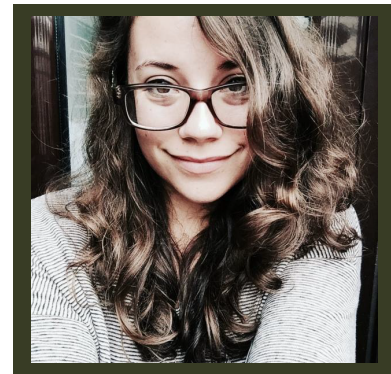

Fairbanks Arts is delighted to welcome third year graduate students from the UAF MFA program who will share their works in this April reading in the Bear Gallery. Having almost finished their degrees, our readers can look back at the excellent literary education provided by the English department, helping them find their unique voices. We are excited to listen to them read their works and hope to see you there!
