Guest Speaker ~ Dr. Elizabeth Jameson
Professor Emerita of History at the University of Calgary

Elizabeth Jameson is a western historian with specialties in western women's history, the history of North American borderlands, and western labor. She has studied the life and work of Laura Ingalls Wilder for over two decades. Her publications include three co-edited volumes: The Women's West, Writing the Range: Race Class and Culture in the Women's West, and One Step Over the Line: Toward a History of Women in the North American West. A past-President of the Western History Association, she is currently Professor Emerita of History at the University of Calgary. And long ago, before the pipeline, she studied Alaskan history and anthropology one summer at UAF.
