Presents Guest Speaker

Jessica A. Schnabel

Global Head, Banking on Women
International Finance Corporation,
World Bank Group

Jessica is more than just a banker, she leads a global team that invests in and provides advisory expertise to commercial banks in developing countries. This helps them profitably finance women-owned businesses and provide the skills, technology and services to help them grow. She will discuss the International Finance Corporation and the World Bank Group, and specifically their Banking on Women initiative, including global trends, success stories, lessons learned and questions.

Wed. November 20, 2019
