Breaking Barriers
2020 Fairbanks History Day Exhibit & Competition
February 10 - 14, 2020 at the JP Jones Community Center

The University of Alaska Fairbanks' Department of History and Arthur T. Fathauer Endowed Chair are proud to announce the 22nd Annual Fairbanks History Day. The Five-day competition and exhibit will take place February 10 - 14th, 2020 at the J.P. Jones Community Center, 2400 Rickert Street, Fairbanks.

The Exhibit is available for public viewing from 10am to 5pm February 11- 13.

The theme for this year's contest is Breaking Barriers. More than 250 students in grades K through 12 are expected to participate in a diverse array of exhibits and other categories, including documentary film making, performances, essays and websites.

Winners of the Fairbanks History Day competition will go on to compete at the state and national level, with the final round taking place in Washington D.C. this June.
