

Alaska Anthropological Association
Academic Support & Success / Career Development
Virtual Job Fair

Organizers:

Marine Vanlandeghem (mcvanlandeghem@alaska.edu)

Tamara Holman (contact@tamaraholman.com)

Join us for the first annual #Akaa job fair 12:20 pm to 2:20 pm on Friday, March 5, 2021.

Looking for field technicians or interns? Seeking field school or graduate students for an academic program? Represent a government agency seeking to fulfil public outreach goals? Reserve your (virtual) spot today!

This event is an opportunity for students and job seekers of all levels to network with potential employers, field school or internship programs and other opportunities in Alaska. Each employer will be assigned their own break out session in Zoom to meet with the job fair participants. Employers are encouraged to prepare an introductory slide or flash presentation describing the types of positions available, information about how to navigate the employment process and their Equal Employment Opportunity and diversity/inclusion statements.

To reserve your virtual “table” please email Tamara Holman at contact@tamaraholman.com

The Alaska Anthropological Association (AkAA) strives to provide a safe and welcoming environment that is free from bias and intimidation. The Association, in keeping with federal and state law and non-profit best practices, expressly prohibits any form of harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, marital status, changes in marital status, pregnancy, parenthood, status as a Vietnam-era or disabled veteran, or any other protected classification. No form of discriminatory or harassing conduct by or towards another member, staff, volunteer, contractor, exhibitor, sponsor, or other person participating in association events or programs will be tolerated.
