

Grant and Contract Research Administration Training/Education (G-CReATE)

The Office of Grants and Contracts Administration (OGCA)

Presents:

The Budget Narrative/Justification

Wednesday, September 14, 2016

1:15 pm – 2:15 pm

*Rasmuson Library, Room 340
(Media Classroom)*

Overview:

The session will look in depth at what constitutes a cohesive and compelling budget justification (budget narrative). A budget justification is required for each proposal that is generated at UAF, which provides reviewers with critical details on costs and why they are necessary for a project. Examples from various budget justifications will be provided throughout the session for context.

Learning Objectives:

- To understand the purpose of a budget justification
- To learn how a budget justification connects the budget to the scope of work
- To identify key components of a budget justification with examples
- To know where to get assistance with crafting a successful budget justification

Audience:

Faculty, staff, and students

Additional Note:

This and other OGCA G-CReATE sessions can each be counted as 1.0 credit hour for the renewal of a CRA, CPRA, or CFRA certification. For more information, please contact OGCA.
