

Roadmap to Graduation

Student entering UAF as a freshman with no AP, CLEP, or transfer credits. This student is interested in early British and American literature; has a secondary interest in creative writing; is pursuing a social science minor; and is tentatively planning a future in teaching.

Courses beyond the English major and Social Science minor have been proposed to allow the student to test whether they wish to pursue a second minor in Secondary Education or Secondary Education Licensure.

NOTE: This is just one of many possible ways this type of student could meet the requirements for the English major.
