

University of Alaska Fairbanks
 Student Learning Outcomes Assessment
Master of Arts Administration of Justice
 College of Liberal Arts

Revised November 2018

Intended Objectives/Outcome	Assessment Criteria and Procedures	Implementation
1. Prepare students to assume leading roles in the administration and management of Justice agencies.	All students will complete either a project or prospectus related to Justice practice or theory.	Placement and/or promotion in Justice related position. If completing prospectus, review by selected faculty member only. Employment status ascertained during students participation in JUST 690, students to complete self-reflection assessment as to Skill-based gained leading to employment and future plans.
2. Students will Engage with Faculty and fellow students to develop and evidence strong oral communication skills appropriate for criminal Justice agencies. 3. Educate Graduate students for employment and advancement in Criminal Justice professions	Project/Prospectus completion and defense to evidence strong oral communication skills Students will successfully complete Just. 605, 615, 620 and 640	If completing prospectus, review by selected faculty member only versus committee (Project Defense). Registration in courses and documentation by faculty of successful completion