

Student Learning Outcomes

Applied Accounting Associate of Applied Science

Upon successful completion of the Applied Accounting AAS degree, students are prepared to:

- Apply appropriate mathematical skills for business problem solving
- Enter basic accounting transactions into an accounting software program.
- Consolidate accounts on a monthly basis to track business income and expenses.
- Compare and contrast the financial information prepared for different types of business entities.
- Analyze existing documents by verifying the accuracy of information for a company and performing necessary reconciliation.
- Create basic accounting documents and solve case problems related to the accounting cycle
- Use critical thinking skills to make decisions that reflect legal and ethical standards of the accounting profession.
- Produce accurate financial statements for a company and communicate a company's financial position
- Use appropriate technology to support business functions • Have the knowledge and skills to successfully enter into the accounting field