

Student Learning Outcomes - AAS in Construction Management

Students who complete the Construction Management AAS program will:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the roles and responsibilities of the Owner, Designer and Contractor in various design and construction processes.
- Demonstrate an understanding of Construction Documents: drawings, technical specifications and various construction contract forms.
- Demonstrate an understanding of construction cost estimating, construction planning & scheduling, construction quality assurance and construction safety.
- Demonstrate an understanding of appropriate communications, reporting, record keeping and various other construction project management functions.