

Dental Assisting AAS - Student Learning Outcomes

Students who complete an AAS degree in Dental Assisting will:

- Possess the skills and the knowledge to gain employment in a dental facility.
- Demonstrate a knowledge of administrative skills, clinical assisting skills, including radiographs, as well nutrition, vital signs and limited pharmacology, as it pertains to dental assisting scope of practice.
- Demonstrate a knowledge and show competence of clinical skills including Infection Control.
- Demonstrate knowledge to successfully pass the national certified dental assistant exam.