

Information Technology Specialist Certificate – Student Learning Outcomes

Demonstrate foundation-level technical skills to provide entry-level support and troubleshooting in the following areas: Operating Systems, Hardware, Networking, and Troubleshooting.

Demonstrate the communication, computation and human relations skills required of an entry-level IT support professional.