

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

AAS Medical Assisting:

Students who complete an AAS degree in Medical Assisting will:

- Possess the skills and knowledge to gain employment in a health care provider's office.
  - Demonstrate a knowledge of administrative skills, including the use of office equipment, accurate phone techniques and billing and coding.
  - Demonstrate a knowledge of clinical skills including vital signs, specimen collection, analysis, positioning and assisting skills.
  - Demonstrate the ability to accurately compute dosages based on weight and availability of medications.
-
- 