Trip description:
We will hike a steep uphill to the top of Angel Rocks for lunch along the rocky ridge line that provides breath taking views of the Chena Recreation area below. The hike continues up and follows a ridge to gain awesome views of the Angel Creek Valley. After reaching the ridge to we will head down and complete the Angel Creek Loop. After we get back down we will head to the Chena Hot Springs. Participants can choose to soak in the Hot Springs or take a tour of their choice. Participants should have sturdy boots and warm layers for this experience. Many years there is a bit of snow on the ridge this time of year. Don’t forget your swimsuit and towel if you plan to soak. (Hot Springs Pool Pass or tour is not included in the price.)

No refund is provided if the participant does not show up or cancels 2 days prior to the trip.

Safety and Risk Management:
Due to the nature of outdoor travel there are certain inherent risks in all of Outdoor Adventure’s trips. Acceptable risks include but are not limited too; hiking over rough uneven terrain with a heavy backpack on, hiking up and down steep inclines with muddy and loose footing, crossing creeks and swampy ground, and having wet feet and clothing. Conditions may include below freezing temperatures, thunderstorms, rain, snow, sleet and high winds. Driving risks may include slick roads, poor visibility and wildlife. Alaska is a wild place - you need to take ultimate responsibility for your own safety as only you can. For your protection we require you to carry health insurance. You can purchase insurance for $2.60/day from the University (ask for details). All info is subject to change due to safety, weather, current conditions, etc.! If you have any questions please contact us or visit our office in the SRC
