Class price $175

November 10th and 11th
8 am  Class begins in Gruening 401 classroom each day
6 pm  Estimated completion time each day

Class Description:
This course is packed with valuable information regarding medical emergencies in the backcountry. The instructor will cover the important topics relevant to Wilderness Medical Emergencies. The course provides students with an American Safety and Health Institute WFA certification. This is great information, but also a great resume builder. The course fee includes textbooks, certification fees and instruction. (This course does not include CPR.)

Things to bring:
- Come prepared for being outside for part of the day, you will not spend all class time inside.
- Bring a pen or pencil with a notebook
- Brown Bag lunch is advisable as well as a water bottle

Refund Policy:
Payment in full is required to sign up for a trip. A 100% refund is available if you notify the Outdoor Adventures Office of the cancellation more than two weeks (14 days) before the first day of the trip. Cancellation one week to 3 days (13 to 3 days) before the trip entitles the participant to a 50% refund. No refund is provided if the participant does not show up or cancels 2 days prior to the trip.

Safety and Risk Management:
Due to the nature of outdoor travel there are certain inherent risks in all of Outdoor Adventure’s trips and classes. Acceptable risks include but are not limited too; performing first-aid scenarios in which you will act as a victim and/or a caregiver. Being outside during the class for the practice of skills and scenarios  It is important to recognize that you are voluntarily participating in this activity. By choosing to participate, you agree that you appreciate and accept responsibility for these risks. You need to take ultimate responsibility for your own safety as only you can. For your protection we require you to carry health insurance. You can purchase insurance for $2.60/day from the University (ask for details). All info is subject to change due to safety, weather, current conditions, etc.!
