

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT WORKSHOP

with Melissa Shaginoff

Oct. 13, 2020

10:00 a.m.-noon

Via Zoom

Land acknowledgement opens a space with gratefulness. It allows us to publicly recognize the Indigenous people whose traditional lands we stand upon. Land acknowledgement honors the past and present Indigenous stewardship of the natural world. It also offers respect and visibility for the histories, contributions, innovations and contemporary perspectives of Indigenous people. Melissa will guide us to understanding and creating our own meaningful and authentic acknowledgement. Registrants will receive Zoom login information one day prior to the event.

About this workshop:

This workshop will focus both on the communal and personal understanding of land acknowledgement. In a conversation-based facilitation, this workshop will explore the simple and complex components of acknowledgement from both an institutional and Indigenous perspective. Space is limited to 15 registrants for this one-time workshop.

Contact Izzy Martinez at ihmartinez@alaska.edu to register for this workshop.

This workshop is sponsored by the UAF College of Rural and Community Development.
