INTRODUCTION TO ACCOUNTING RECRUITMENT WEEKS

During Accounting Recruitment Weeks, an average of 9 local and national accounting firms visit UAF to recruit interns and full-time employees from our talent pool. This event occurs annually in September and October and allows students to learn about accounting careers as well as engage and interview with potential employers.

Whether you're applying for an internship or seeking a career after graduation, Accounting Recruitment Weeks are an integral step in the right direction for Accounting students.

RECENT CHANGES

Accounting Recruitment takes place hardly a month after the semester begins so it's a busy time for everyone, especially those who've heard little about the event. Additionally, the combination of coming back from summer break and varying application deadlines can make it difficult to stay on track. Here's what we've changed to address that:

- Combined with UAA to hold a Meet and Greet night which will expose UAF students to brand new opportunities and employers
- Consolidated application deadlines (instead of 300 deadlines, there is only 1)
- Switched this event to virtual to ensure the safety of participants

In the past, it's been difficult to find information on Accounting Recruitment--where to apply, how to apply, deadlines, etc.

With this booklet you have all the information at your finger tips.

To ensure that you have the most up-to-date version, check our website every few days or follow Career Services on Facebook (@uafcareer) for update notices.
The Process

Research and Preparation
Research the recruiting accounting firms and the accounting profession in general. If you attended the Alaska Native Corporation Seminar, KPMG’s Etiquette Dinner, and/or GAAP Spring Break Trip during the spring semester, now would be a good time to go over any notes you took.

- Attend Meet and Greet
- Know what you want in a career
- Know what you can offer potential employers
- Become a Great Alaskan Accounting People (GAAP) member--all of their meetings and events are focused on professional development specific to the accounting profession

Apply
Update your resume, think of experiences you can tie into cover letters, and make sure you have at least three professional references ready if asked. Have these materials reviewed by more than one person.

Visit Career Services’ website for resume and cover letter resources: uaf.edu/career

Interview
If you are selected to interview, you will receive an email from Handshake to select your interview date and time. It is important that you look for this email and make your selections promptly!

Schedule an appointment with Career Services to practice your interviewing skills

Follow Up
Whether or not you get the job, send a thank you card or email to the firms. If you haven’t heard back from a recruiter more than one week after your interview, send an email or call the firm.

All related events and deadlines can be found in the "Master Schedule" on pages 5.
Interview schedules can be found on Handshake.
For a list of resources, see "Student Resources" on page 36.
To help keep you on track, there is also a "Checklist" on page 35.
EMPLOYER EXPECTATIONS

After every Accounting Recruitment event, we ask recruiters,

“What advice would you give applicants who plan to interview next year?”

See what they had to say.

Have a plan ready for obtaining your CPA license. Altman, Rogers & Co. (2018)

Apply sooner than the day of the deadline or after it is extended. BDO USA, LLP (2018)

Be yourself. Have good examples ready for behavioral questions & have a couple questions for interviewer. KPMG (2019)

Be genuine in answering questions. Practice interviewing and participate in all GAAP events! Cook & Haugeberg (2019)

Work on questions for the interviewer and really think about the type of firm you want to work for. Robinson & Ward, PC (2015)

Give the interview and the process 100% even if you are not sure where you want to end up. You never know who knows who or when you will see someone again. First impressions matter. State of Alaska Division of Legislative Audit (2018)

Review the website of the companies you are interviewing for. Walsh Kelliher & Sharp (2015)

Never be afraid to ask questions. Make sure your contact numbers and email addresses are current and up-to-date. Wilson & Wilson CPAs, Inc. (2018)

All responses were collected by Career Services through a survey of participating recruiters after UAF Accounting Recruitment Weeks in 2015, 2016, 2018, and 2019.

History
Ted Larson and Dennis Gross founded our firm in 1949. They built the business based on excellence, passion, integrity, trust and proaction — values still important to us more than six decades later.

Today, we’re led by ten partners who are growing our firm with respect for where we’ve come from and a new vision for future success. Our three offices – in Bellingham, Burlington and Lynden – put us close to you, your business and the issues important to you.

No Bow Ties Allowed
We know what you may think about accountants — buttoned up, perfectly tied bow tie, stuffy, maybe a desk full of perfectly sharpened pencils. But a bow tie doesn’t make an accountant any smarter. In fact, it might be cutting off blood to the brain (we think there have been studies).

Your life and your business change quickly. That’s why we take the time to actually know you, not just run your numbers. And we know how to have a little fun while we’re at it.

We definitely take our work seriously, just not ourselves.

Unique Relationships from a Unique Firm
We get to know you when our children play on the same soccer team, when we run into you at the grocery store or when we see you at the local café after church on Sundays. Our clients choose us because they know us as friends and neighbors; people who are just as committed to the long-term health and vitality of the community as they are.

We focus on serving private and closely held businesses and their owners. Many of our clients are family businesses that we are now assisting in their second or third generations of ownership. It’s extremely rewarding to stand beside a business and watch it grow along with its owners.

While our technical acumen may open the door to serving you, it’s our commitment to listening, understanding and anticipating that we believe will keep you coming back.
