Join us for an additional 6 nights to experience the turquoise Tyrrhenian waters, sun-bleached villas, and precipitous cliffs of the Amalfi Coast, and witness the millennia-old archaeological treasures of Naples - including the legendary buried city of Pompeii - on this post-trip extension.

Days 1-3, March 21-23: Amalfi

- Fly from Catania to Naples to continue your tour on the Italian mainland in the province of Campania, known for its rugged coastline, preserved Roman ruins and arguably the best pizza in all of Italy. From the Naples airport, we'll go down to Amalfi, your base along the coast for 3 nights.

- We'll hike from Scala, the oldest village on the Amalfi Coast to St. Eustachio, the ruin of a medieval village. We'll take in the sweeping view atop the cliffs of Ravello and take a tour of a 13th-century villa. We'll have a pizza-making lesson in a mountain village known as the capital of pizza.

Days 4-7, March 24-27: Naples

- Drive up to Naples, with a visit to the ancient ruins of Pompeii followed by lunch at a winery on the way.

- With Naples as our base for 3 nights, we'll visit the UNESCO National Archaeological Museum, the city of Sorrento with its romantic view over the Bay of Naples, the UNESCO archaeological site of Herculaneum and sit down with a local expert to discuss the Camorra, the regional mafia based in Campania. On May 27, we'll check out of our hotel to return to the Naples airport for our flights home.
