21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS

Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

Positive impact: We can continue to offer conversational language classes to the community.

Negative impact: No negative impact should result in the addition of this class.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

This course has been offered previously as a special topics course. There is a steady enrollment. The implementation of this topic as a new course meets a need in the community.

Textbook: Integrated Chinese Level 1 Part 2 Textbook & Workbook
Publisher: Cheng & Tsui Co.

Course Description:

This is the first semester course of second-year Chinese (a continuation of CHNS F100B). The student will continue to progress in the basic skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing by learning more characters/vocabulary and broadened sentence patterns. Grammar and sentence pattern analyses will be presented systematically with respect to the course materials to help students establish a solid foundation for the use of the language.

Historic, philosophic and social aspects of Chinese culture will be presented with respect to the course materials.

Course Goals and Student Learning Outcomes:

This course covers the first 5 thematic lessons in Integrated Chinese Level 1 Part 2. The student will acquire about 170 in vocabulary and approximately 40 basic sentence patterns and their practical applications. The tonal aspect of the language will be stressed. The students are expected to be able to use the pattern sentences to order drinks/food, greet friends, chat about weather, ask directions, see a doctor for a minor illness, and engage in simple conversations about family members, class schedules, or going out. Students are required to write short passages, and are expected to practice speaking Chinese both in and outside of class.

Instructional Methods:

- All aspects of language learning (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) will receive equal attention.
- Classroom instruction
 1. Present new vocabulary and new sentence patterns from the 10 lesson topics in the textbook. Supplemental materials will be given as needed.
 2. Analyze sentence structures with emphases on usage and their practical applications.
 3. Practice oral exercises with every student during classroom time.
- Audio and video tapes will be used to aid the development of listening skills.
- Homework – the workbook will be used for weekly homework assignments. The students will also be required to write short passages and present them orally in class.
- One quiz every week, one midterm exam, and a final.
- Outside classroom activities – all students will be matched with a practice partner.

Course Policies:

- Attendance and punctuality are required. Any absence will require a phone call or email report. Unexcused absences will affect the course grade. Ten or more hours absent will result in a grade of “F” for the course.
- Deadlines apply to everyone. Late assignments will be accepted only with the approval of the instructor.
- Classroom participation and attendance will be evaluated and counted as part of the final grade.

Evaluation:

Homework/Quizzes:	30%
Midterm Exam:	20%
Participation/Attendance:	15%
Presentations	10%
Final Exam:	25%

Grading percentages for the course will be as follows:

A+	B+	C+	D+	F
97-100	87-89	77-79	67-69	0-60
A	B	C	D
93-96	83-86	73-76	63-66
A-	B-	C-	D-
90-92	80-82	70-72	60-62
