JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course designator applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the course is not compromised as a result.

Development and facilitation of this course will meet the requested need of workforce development within the state of Alaska as well as nationally. This class meets a direct request for need from programs seeking BA degrees in the discipline of early childhood that focus on the area of infant / toddler development and care.
ECE 304W will also be a program writing intensive developed specifically within this topic area.

Links the importance of relationships in conjunction with reciprocal communication streams and social interactions. Strategies for working with families as a continuum for each specific child's development.

ECE 304W is a requirement for the Child Development and Family Studies B.A program, within the Family Support Concentration

Written Intensive:

This course is designated as Writing-Intensive (W). This designation means that the "W" is evident in the course number on the syllabus. The designation applies to upper-division courses and means that a majority of the graded work in the course will be derived from writing activities. Here are the general guidelines for the writing expected in this course:

*Students will complete an un-graded writing sample on or near the first day of class to help the teacher assess writing ability and general competence.

*Students will receive comments from the teacher and/or peers on drafts of written work. In other words, students will work through a draft-and-redraft process so that they can apply feedback and become more effective writers. If students complete a major research project, the teacher will supervise the students' writing in stages.

*Students will have opportunity to individually discuss their writing with the instructor either face-to-face or through audio conference.

Course Goals:

Students will develop an understanding of young children's characteristics and needs as well as the multiple interacting influences on children's social and emotional development beginning in the infant and toddler stages of life.

Student Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will:

1. Define importance of relationship-based programs.
2. Articulate the need to respect each baby as a valued individual.
3. Classify infant cues and respond based on interpretation
4. Investigate use of behaviors that foster respectful, responsive, and reciprocal care for infants, toddlers.
5. Construct an understanding of stages of social development.
6. Critique how relationships effect development and learning of infants and toddlers.
7. Summarize ways to develop professional communication and support.

NAEYC Standards addressed in this course:

Standard 1: Promoting child development and learning

Key elements

- 1a: Knowing and understanding young children's characteristics and needs
- 1b: Knowing and understanding the multiple influences on development and learning
- 1c: Using developmental knowledge to create healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments.

Standard 3: Observing, documenting, and assessing to support young children and Families

Key elements

- 3b: Knowing about and using observation, documentation, and other appropriate assessment tools and approaches
- 3c: Understanding and practicing responsible assessment

Standard 4: Teaching and learning

Key elements:

- 4a: Knowing, understanding, and using positive relationships and supportive interactions
- 4b: Knowing, understanding, and using effective approaches, strategies, and tools for early education

Instructional Methods:

The method of instruction will be a combination of reading assignments, Blackboard, audio conferencing. Audio lectures will be recorded and blackboard discussion forums continually monitored. Students will demonstrate their understandings of course content and proficiency of skill through assignments and discussion. All assignments will be communicated through the assignments section of the course Bb site. Other communication will take place through email.

Requirements and Assignments:

- Diagnostic composition will be required on the first day. Points will not be taken away for mistakes, but will provide the basis for writing ability. Your composition should be at least 5 paragraphs in length and be properly structured, with correct grammar and spelling. The topic of this composition will be “Specific interests in literacy and objectives you hope to gain from participation in ECE 304w.” Please write your composition and attach it within the Initial Diagnostic Composition area within the Assignment section of the class Black board site.
- Reading Reflection: One written response for each chapter of the text will be completed and turned in through the assignments section of Blackboard. Reading reflections will be in response to 5 reading response papers due for 5 article assignments. There are two article options within each section. Please choose 1 option within each assignment and complete. Please complete your reading response using APA formatting. The write-ups will be used as guidance for improvement of the APA formatting required for the final research paper. The reading response papers should be 1.5-2 pages. Reading response papers should address which article you have read, how any emotional responses that developed, questions and thoughts that may have come up, as well as any points you may have learned from the reading. What did you like? Was there anything that you found troublesome? Did you detect any errors in the material? Did it affirm your present beliefs?
- Final Research Paper:
A scholarly paper demonstrating your knowledge on a key aspect of this course, topic to be determined by Friday January 28th. An editor (writing center) should review a first draft by (Date). Information regarding the writing center for local or rural students will be posted on the ECE 304W Black Board site. A semifinal draft is due to the instructor for review by (Date). Final completed paper is due (Date), and posted on the Bb site by (Date) as well. The paper will be written using APA formatting.

The final paper will be worth 125 points total broken down in the following chart

Student Action	Due Date	Points	Total
Turn in topic of interest	DATE	5
1 st draft	DATE	5
2 nd draft	One eve prior to scheduled mtg	5
Individual meetings developed around the progress of your research paper.	These meetings will be scheduled between DATE	5
Final Paper	DATE	95
Informal Presentation	DATE	10

Course Evaluation:

A letter grade will be issued for participants. (Note that you must receive a C or higher for this course to count towards your CDFS BA Degree. Grading is based on:

Initial Composition	25	10%
Reading reflections (5 @ 20 pts each)	100	40%
Final Research Paper	125	50 %
Total	250	100%

All coursework will be evaluated on the following:

- Organization
- Clarity
- Consistency of thought and format
- Reflection of course content
- Thoughtful assimilation/accommodation with evidence of conceptual connections and understanding of content
- Written work contains no or few distracting elements such as spelling errors.

Grade	Points	Definition
A = 100% - 90%	250-225	An honor grade. Demonstrates originality, independence, a thorough mastery of the subject; completing more work than is regularly required. Demonstrates a deep understanding, presented with exceptional clarity & poise.
B = 89% - 80%	224-200	Better than the average. Above the average expectation. Projects or papers are presented neatly and thoroughly but do not have the depth and originality for an "A."
C = 79% - 70%	199-175	Average. The student grasps the essential information; material is complete and presented on time.
D = 69% - 60%	174-150	Below average. Student misses significant aspects of the assignment. Material is not turned in on time; student is unprepared to present project to class.
F = below 60 %	149-0	Student was unable to complete the assignment on time with at least a 60% understanding and presentation.

Student Support Services:

The University has many student support programs. If you need assistance please contact any of the following service programs or departments.

UAOnline

<http://uaonline.alaska.edu/>

Your resource for transcripts, accounts and other personal information

Disabilities Services:

The Child Development and Family Studies program will work with the Office of Disability Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities. Disability Services provide a variety of services to assure equal access for all students. Interpreting services, educational assistants, note taking, and exam accommodations for students are the most frequently provided accommodations.

The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. (203 WHIT, 474-7043) I will work with the Office of Disabilities Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

Disability services also provides assistance to the university's rural campuses; Bristol Bay, Chukchi, Interior-Aleutians, Kuskokwim, and Northwest.

Questions should be directed to the Director of Disability Services at (907)-474-5655.
<http://www.uaf.edu/disability/>

Representatives from the office also regularly meet students in the CTCC building. Check with the CTCC student services for more information, 455-2851 or 2849.

Computer, Internet and Software

Problem: you cannot get your email Make sure your Internet connection is working; to test it, you can try to go to a new web page and see if it loads.

- If you are having problems with a UAF account, you will need to contact the UAF help desk 1.800.478.4667. If it is another company's account, you will need to contact their customer support. There is very little we can do to assist you as we have no control or access to the computers that serve the email.
- Check with your email program's Help.

Problem: you forgot your password

- Only the organization that issued your password can do anything to change it. You will need to contact them. For UAF email and Blackboard it is the UAF help desk 1.800.478.4667. For most web services there is a link you can click if you forgot your password. I also recommend writing them down somewhere for back up.

Problem: you are having problems with Blackboard

- You will need to contact the Blackboard administrator, at: <http://classes.uaf.edu/> Office of Information Technology Help Desk 474.6564 or 1.800.478.4667.
