

Criteria Rubric for required Alaska Native course

- 1) Is the class a course with significant (50% or more of the course content) on Alaska Native peoples and cultures through at least one of the following: values, language, art, knowledge, governance, subsistence, experience, and/or ways of life?
- 2) Is the significance of Alaska Native peoples and cultures through at least one of the following: values, language, art, knowledge, governance, subsistence, experience, and/or ways of life reflected in the course description?
- 3) Is the significance of Alaska Native peoples and cultures through at least one of the following: values, language, art, knowledge, governance, subsistence, experience, and/or ways of life reflected in the syllabus?
- 4) Is the significance of Alaska Native peoples and cultures through at least one of the following: values, language, art, knowledge, governance, subsistence, experience, and/or ways of life reflected in the course objectives?

If you answered Yes to all of these questions your course [including syllabus and course description] will be considered to meet the required Alaska Native course requirement.