

Ashley Munro, Staff Council Unit 7 Representative

Ashley Munro moved to Fairbanks in 2001 from Ohio to attend UAF. After earning a BS degree in Anthropology, she became a full time staff member working at Interior-Aleutians Campus. She currently works in the Financial Aid Office. Ashley has been an active member of Staff Council since January of 2006 and is now the chair of the Advocacy Committee, Ad-Hoc Communications Committee and the Staff Appreciation Day Committee. The Advocacy Committee serves to organize events and functions to help make the public aware of the value of University staff and increase staff morale and awareness of the University. The Communications Committee is striving to better the communication between staff and their Staff Council representatives. The Staff Appreciation Day Committee is currently planning for next years event.
